BABY FARM RAIDED

Two Women Arrested in Connection Therewith.

RHODY'S POLITICAL FIGHT.

Waxes Hot as Election Day Draws Near-Body of an Unknown Man, Per-Confesses Her Imposition-Other News of Interest to New Englanders.

LYNN, Mass., April 1.—It was stated yesterday that a case of baby farming had been found in Saugus, and that before the day was out several arrests would be made. The occupants of the house were arrested last night by State Officer Shaw and Chief of Police Clark of Saugus. They are two women, who claim to be mother and daugater, and gave the names of Anna and Mary Fisher. Eleven children were found, their ages ranging from 8 weeks to 18 months. The structure in which they lived had a most disreputable appearance, and is filthy in the extreme Although there were thirteen persons here, but one bed was in the house.

The suspicion of the authorities were irst aroused by finding the dead body of an infant a short distance away Wednes-day forenoon. Further investigation, which is to be made, may necessitate bringing a more serious charge against the prisoners, as it is thought that they may have buried other children without notifying the proper authorities.

Mrs. Fisher was seen at the police station last night. She stated that her arrest was an outrage, and should anything be ublished she would shoot the man who wrote it, and afterward sue his paper for libel. She claimed that all the children, except the 18-months old girl and the baby, were hers, and that she had promised no who can testify to her conduct and charitable deeds.

pany in 1889 and was then in favor of new works, but he now thought it better to pur chase. The questions with him were: Is it best for city to own its water works? He believed the city should control the hydrants. There should be 300 and he thought the city would put that many in if EASTPORT, Me., April 1.-At the annual they were public works. The city would equire but four per cent. return to extend the mains, where companies wanted ten and cited cases where even at larger per cent. the Quincy company had refused.

Why should we not purchase? It had Burglars are operating at Canton and been said we could not at a fair price. I believe the city's interests would be safe with commissioners. If pipes and water were poor, the city should then show them up. The award was just as liable to be in > favor of the city as the company. Did city have the privilege to put in new upply, it was not clear to him just where he water would come from, and there was to surety that there would be enough. Law suits would arise also because of the > taking of the waters. Morally the city has no right to put in ndependent works to cripple the company. Mr. Shaw has shown no reasons why city hould not purchase.

Councilman Federhen.

Quoted an opinion of Judge Bumpus, that company must supply all citizens who wanted water.

The speaker agreed with others that the city should own its water works. Thought 5 out of 100 thought so. But we should ndeavor to get an independent grant.

Ex-Mayor Porter had said the company had never considered the question of sellng its works to the city. This was not so, or committees of the town and city had had conferences with the company on the ubject, as reports showed. One report said the company refused to set a price but would consider an offer of the town.

The town committee had recommended hat it was not wise to have the matter of rice referred to commissioners.

What has the company to sell? As be tween cast and wrought iron pipes there is no doubt but the latter is the stronger, but he was afraid that because of its thinness it would not stand the wear and tear as well. The source of the present supply needed a large expenditure to purify. Every assay showed the water impure, and the presence of the piggeries was offensive, f the water was not poisonous.

The supply proposed by Engineer Blake would be a great improvement. There was o question but what an adequate supply could be obtained, and as it was proposed

William Jennings Bryan.

The Brilliant Young Congressman From Nebraska.

William Jennings Bryan, of Nebraska, now by reason of his tariff speech on Wednesday, one of the famous orators of the House, has just attained his thirtysecond year, having been born March 19, 1860, in the little town of Salem, Marion County, Illinois. He attended the public schools of his native town, and then graduated, first, from the Illinois State College and afterwards from Union Law College, Chicago. He spent two years in the law office of Lyman Trumbull in Chicago, and in the fall of 1887 moved to Nebraska and opened a law office at Lincoln. He likewise plunged into politics, and so signal was his success and so commanding his talents that the very next year he was offered the Democratic nomination for Lieutenant-Governor. This he declined, but he took an active part in the campaign and made, in all, over fifty speeches.

This work gained him a State reputation and in 1890 he was nominated for Congress | DIRECTLY OPPOSITE FOST OFFICE. in the Lincoln District. Senate Silver Debate Tabled Until That Time. BOSTON-Old Colony News Stand after

By Mr. Bland, Who Explains That It Used Merely to Prevent Filibustering-Why the Speaker Refused to Repor the Rule-News from the Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 1-The debate on silver will not begin in the senate today as intended. Mr. Morgan has ascertained that a number of senators on both sides who intended to speak on the silver bill are not prepared to begin debate on such short notice. Accordingly, the resolution will be allowed to rest on the table until Monday.

Representative Bland, speaking of the proposition advanced by a large number ATLANTIC-Cunningham's News Agency of Democrats to bring in a cloture rule to and carriers.

QUINCY POINT—Post Office and Charles enable a vote on the silver bill to be had, yesterday said that considerable misunderstanding existed throughout the country regarding the proposition. The dif ficulty, he said, we have with the silver bill is an apparent misunderstanding as to the nature of the rule that the speaker had intended to report to the house. It is not a cloture rule, he said, further than it is in aid of the previous question, and this, he said, had been the cloture rule of the house for fifty years. The bill proposed to be reported, he said, was simply a rule to prevent filibustering by declaring it out of order for the speaker to entertain mo-tions of a filibustering character.

The Standing Rules already adopted, he said, gives the committee on rules power to stop filibustering. That is to say, he said, the committee on rules report a rule to the house providing that pending a proposition on which the house wished to come to a vote, ments:

1. Rent crape. "No, that sounds too ing filibustering motions. When this rule is reported, he said, the house itself must adopt it or reject it, so that it is the house which must determine whether or not it wishes to stop filibustering. The go wrong, then all my plans would be nipped in the bud."

The steems as it I should be rules of the last congress, he said, gave the speaker absolute power to refuse to entertain dilatory motions, while the rules of this congress vests this power in the house without the report of the committee on

6. CHARM TEN. "This seems more encouraging than any of the others."
7. THICK LAMBS. "Ah, here is the trade for me. It sounds like peace and plenty, and I will tell father at once that it is my against "cloture," and a great many members being now, were midel as the iteration. The enemies of the silver bill, he said, it seemed had learned that the speaker inbers being new were misled as to its actual nature.

Since the matter was over, Mr. Bland said that he had learned to his satisfaction that the speaker was beset by a large number of members who had voted for free coinage, who told him that they Would Not Vote for such a rule. Therefore the speaker was apprehensive that a majority of the party would vote against him, and in view to report the rule until a majority had chapter 360, acts of 1891.

Mr. Bland cited a case under Mr. Randall's administration as speaker, when filibustering had become so great that it became impossible to pass a bill where there were a few opponents. It was a notable fact, he said, that General Anderson of Lowa, then a member of the house. son of Iowa, then a member of the house, companies to make prompt returns $5 a companies to make prompt returns—$5 a day for the first fifteen days and $10 a day afterward, and $500 for total neglect.

Another bill requires city and town clerks to make prompt returns of votes to establish municipal lighting plants.

The railroad committee reported a bill the fullness of the Godhead bodily and whose hope the country had become disgusted with the scene. The Democrats then, he said, realized the necessity of a rule to stop filibute of the fullness of the Godhead bodily and whose hope the country had been been said, realized the necessity of a rule to stop filibute of the fullness of the Godhead bodily and whose hope the country had been been said, realized the necessity of a rule to stop filibute of the fullness of the Godhead bodily and whose hope the country had been been said, realized the necessity of a rule to stop filibute of the fullness of the Godhead bodily and whose hope the country had been been said, and the fullness of the Godhead bodily and whose hope the country had been been said, and the fullness of the Godhead bodily and whose hope the country had been been said, and the country had been said, and the country had been said, an bustering and had the Republicans of last congress gone no further than our rules ing cars common carriers. go now the Democrats could not have reasonably objected to them.

Of Inhalation has only begun to be appreciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is s rictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all diccases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency ca AERATED OXYCEN. It is the new medicine of nature herself.

Sweeps Over a Large Portion of the West.

HEAVY DAMAGE IN KANSAS.

Towns Wiped from the Face of the Earth-Many Lives Lost and Hundreds of Buildings Ruined-Many Lives Lost in Chicago-Ravages by the Storm Elsewhere.

KANSAS CITY, April 2.- A tornado of had destructiveness swept over Kansas Thursday night. Butler county seems to ave been the scene of the greatest havoc. he town of Towanda was wiped off the face of the earth and Augusta, a few miles listant, was buffeted out of all semblance o its former self. Not a building was eft standing in Towanda. The town was asleep when the storm swept down, razed everything in its path and left dead bodies ying in its wake. Four dead bodies have en recovered from the ruins already earched. Twenty persons are fatally hurt and forty more seriously injured, besides large number more or less maimed. At Augusta, three men were killed outright, Harmon Hoskins, James Barnes and the infant child of Will Rhodes, who was blown out of his mother's arms and lashed against a brick wall. Rhodes himself is fatally injured, as is also the wife of Harmon Hoskins. Eifteen others were hurt more or less seriously, according to present reports. All wires are down, and t is impossible to get any detailed account rom either place.

The same storm touched at Kiowa and Wellington. In Kiowa, the Missouri Pacific depot and a number of dwellings and buildings were demolished, and though no loss of life is known, several minor mishaps are reported. The damage to property is said to be great.

Wellington and vicinity suffered considerably and several persons were killed. William Little's house, south of Wellington, was blown to atoms and Little and four children were killed. Joe Walton's house was picked up, and thirteen of its ccupants were more or less injured. Sam Butterworth's house and its occupants were carried 300 yards in the air, and ome of the family were fatally hurt.

The storm, as far as can be determined, swept across the country from the Indian Territory, into the southwest part of Barber county, Kan., taking the little town of Kiowa in its path. In a northeasterly direction it passed through Frazier county and through the center of Sumner county.

Bending as a Bow, t passed almost directly north through lage and farm houses were carried away as it swept along. The tornado continued in Kansas and the northwestern part of Mis-

At St. Joseph, every telegraph and telephone wire has been torn down, small dwellings demolished and many large ones unroofed. Thousands of dollars' worth of damage was caused by the breaking of piate glass in store windows. In the eastern part of the city a brick house was blown down, burying Tillie Bushnell, aged 7, seriously injuring her. At the factory of Tootle, Hosea & Co., there was a stampede of the several hundred girls. A violent gust tore portions of the roof off the factory.

At Salina, the house of M.A. Brather was carried from its foundation and wrecked. The famlly were at supper and all were injured. The house of Samuel Buckholder was demolished. Mrs. Zimmerman took refuge in her cellar. The house was denolished, and Mrs. Zimmerman was fatally injured.

At Ottawa, Kan., the tower of th water company's building was toppled over, roofs carried away and sidewalks turned over. Trees were uprooted, and much damage was done to orchards.

At Chillicoth, Mo., also, the cupola of

In Kansas City the wind reached a velocity of sixty-four miles. The damage consists principally of roofs blown away and plate glass windows broken. The roof of the high school was blown off. The roof of an apartment house was blown away and a grocery store lost its roof and wires throughout the city were prostrated. The smokestack of the power house on the Northeast electric line was toppled over, necessitating a suspension of traffic. Telegraph poles all along the railroad west of here have been prostrated, causing a woeful tangle of wires. The loss at St. Joseph is $50,000. Several steamboats there were swamped or driven Specials from Hiawatha, Kan., Senaca, Oneida, Horton, Lawrence, Bolckow and Maryville, Mo., report great loss. The destroyed village of Towanda had a popu-

The Salary of the Clerk of the Quincy Court under Discussion.

A fair sample of the way in which the House wastes time frivously was seen on Friday, when more than half an hour was wasted in debating the reference of the salary bill of the Clerk of the District Court FINANCES AND TAXATION of East Norfolk. The Public Service Committee had reported a bill establishing the to have the matter discharged from the orders of the day and the bill amended to $.50 $1,000. Mr. Warren of Boston,-who rivals Holman as the "Great Objector," and often times with much better reason .asked to have the bill referred to the Joint Special Committee on the Revision of the Judicial System, which is to sit during the ecess. Then ensued a long debate.

Mr. Dodge of Natick asked, "Does the gentleman now begin to feel that he is in touch with the gentleman from Indiana?" Then the House roared with laughter and applauded vigorously, and Mr. Warren himself smiled broadly. The reference asked for by Mr. Warren was refused. Henry Faxon, the Quincy sage, sat in the front row in the ladies' gallery, leaning forward on his hands and enjoying the debate. Henry appeared before the Public Service Committee on this matter and opposed any raising of the clerk's salary, on the ground that he was unfitted by nature for the office." "I didn't mind him," says Henry, "but it was tough for a green constable to go in there before him; he posed of Boston and the 60 or 70 towns and was so saucy. Of Inhalation has only begun to be appreciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN fernishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is strictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all discases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency of AERATED OXYCEN. It is

A large amount of land was being cut up into house lots. The Quincy Water Company was handicapped, as it already had a debt. It could not be expected to pursue such a liberal policy as a city. It was not a hard problem to demonstrate that the purchase of the works would not add to the tax burden. The summary of Councilman Moxon in Saturday's LEDGER shows this very clearly.

It had been said that the City Council ad flopped over on the water question, but he reviewed the situation at length and claimed that it was perfectly Blake had found another, that of the Blue Hill river. He had some doubt about the subterranean gallery of the plan furnishing an adequate supply, but there was no term of years.

George Cahill ight the Council had changed on the subject and reviewed its action at length. Councilman Pratt gineer Blake's report dealt largely with distribution and little with the source of supply. It was evident to him that the gallery proposed would take water from Great ond, which would involve damages with Braintree, Randolph and Holbrook, and would be in bad shape should it take this winds. water. He maintained the new system would be expensive, that it would cost not less than a million, and in competition with the existing company would considerably increase the taxes.

Everything was not as clear relative to the company's works as he wished it was. He had formerly been a resident of Weymouth, and he compared the works owned by that town with those of Quincy. The Weymouth works had cost to date $424,necessary. The income in 1891 was $31,-318.25, of which $8,000 was from hydrants and $23,000 from rents. The expenditures of 1891 were about $32,000. The cost of the Quincy works had been about the same, Lawyer Golding, of the company, having stated in his arguments before the egislature that the company had expended $440,000. The income from the Quincy works was about $32,000, the rents being $7,000 more than Weymouth. He contended if Weymouth with $7,000 less from rents could get along without making an Spring Trade, rents could get along without making an appropriation to the sinking fund, that Quincy could.

Thought we had heard enough about Weymouth and wanted to hear from everybody on the purchase of the Quincy works. The Employes of the Street Railway Eu tertained by President Graham.

Saturday evening the establishment of Wales, the caterer, was temporarily moved to French's hall for the purpose of furnishing a hot turkey supper to the employes of the Quincy and Boston Street Railway. This complimentary supper was booked for last Thursday evening, but owing to some misunderstanding it did not materalize; nothing was, however, lost by

The employes arrived at the hall shortly after 9 o'clock in full ranks, the roll call put onto the cars for the time being.

A long table had been placed in the centre of the hall, and around this the employes and guests were soon seated. President Graham occupied the chair at the head of the table and on either side were the invited guests, among whom were Mayor Fairbanks, Commissioner Ewell, W. G. A. Pattee, John F. Merrill, John A. Duggan, T. H. McDonnell, Roger H. Wilde, Henry H. Faxon, Walter M. night. Packard, Fred H. Smith, Supt. Weeks, Fred F. Green, Joseph F. Costello and George T. Magee of the LEDGER.

But the feast is o'er. President Graham PUBLISHED EVERY EVENING has the floor and the post-prandial exercises are about to commence. He said: Electric railroading is in its infancy and before many years all the adjoining towns will be connected. Started from a Cigarette ton. For blocks around the burning presses the residents moved out their fur-niture for fear that the fire would spread to their homes. Men, women and children were seen running to and fro with pieces of furniture or other property which they wished to save from the flames. In their flight they would often throw down their parcels in the street and the fire thieves would secure them.

When the walls of the Fireproof press feli three firemen were buried in the debris out they were soon extricated. One was slightly injured, but the other two men were badly hurt.

While the cotton press fire was raging, in alarm was sent in for a Fire in the Residence Portion of the city. At the time the fire department, police and a large majority of the residents of the burning district were at the cotton press fire. A gale was blowing and the flames were fanned in all directions. The heat was intense and the wind blew tongues of flame across the street. The people who lived in the square bounded by Laurel, Magazine, Second and Third streets, packed up their valuables, but as the fire refused to be subdued, they took fright and a wild scene ensued. Houses were dismantled and their contents carried away.

House After House Went Down, and the efforts of the overworked firemen seemed in vain. Crowds gathered from far and near, and men and boys pitched in and assisted in removing furniture. The flames spread in every direction owing to varving winds.

The fire swept across Laurel street with alarming rapidity and soon the whole section bounded by First, Third, Laurel and Magazine streets—four squares—was ablaze. The wooden buildings were devoured as if they were so much chaff. Magazine street stayed the march of the flames westward, and acted as a barrier on the south, Every building in the four squares mentioned, except four, was destroyed. Of Inhalation has only begun to be appreciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which a cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its-last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is a rictly logical, because natural. The healing blam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all dicases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency Ca AERATED OXYCEN. It is he new medicine of nature herself.

Mrs. Mary Noyes Colvin, Secretary Bryn Maur School, Baltimore.

one of our correspondents, and your committee are impressed with the general unanimity of their suggestions favoring the Physical Culture. establishment of a girls school with industrial advantages, and the urgent advice not to duplicate work already being done in our Grammar Schools, High School and Thayer Academy in Braintree. Mrs. Freeman Palmer also substantially endorsed these two points, in her talk before the committee, a report of which can be found in the DAILY

The undersigned members of your comnittee have been from the beginning unanimous in regard to the great importance of the Industrial Education now receiving such marked attention among the prominent educators of this country as well as of other lands. We have few, if any of such advantages here in Quincy, and feel ng sure that such advantages would ab ppreciated and used by a large majority of ur Quincy girls, we believe that the industrial idea as illustrated in "Domestic Science," "Art and Trade Education" should be an important part and feature in any scheme of instruction planned for the Woodward Institute for Girls.

Before presenting the scheme recomnended to your consideration, we would briefly state the difficulties of the problem as Physical Culture. they appear to us.

On the one hand, an institution of a wholly ndustrial character would not come sufciently within the wishes of the testator, e beyond our means.

On the other hand, an Academic and Classical Institution with a small amount of domestic science for girls, from the age of 10. to 20, would necessarily duplicate work already done in our public schools, especially the grammar grades. We have been earnestly cautioned against doing this. And it is very evident to us that to do this would

and that any department of the Woodward Institute which under this plan, must from the nature of the work correspond with most of the studies now followed in our grammar schools, would be very poorly attended, If you are interested, call and inspect our since very few girls between the ages of 10 to 14, would come a long distance at more or less expense to the centre of the city, t obtain what they could as well obtain in the public school of their immediate neighborhood; and should they come in large numbers they will deplete our public schools without materially lessening the present burden of taxation for their maintenance, certainly an event to be deplored on many grounds, and one which in our own judgment, the testator himself, were he alive oday, would not approve or endorse. We have therefore in the scheme proposed endeavored to combine the academic and industrial instruction avoiding as far as we can, the objections spoken of in each. It would greatly strengthen and perfect the proposed course of instruction, if we could by Act of the Legislature drop from the will the requirement "Native Born." Such an omission would enable us to make the Woodward Institute in its academic features, practically the High School for girls in this city; while adding the important

MINORITY REPORT

It is not at all agreeable to find mysel obliged to differ with my fellow-members of the committee appointed to draw up a course of studies to be pursued in the Woodward Institute. Their judgment I respect, and i not accepting their conclusions it seems alnost as though I must appear in the light of an obstructionist. Besides, delay is imposed ipon those who have charge of building uitable edifice, and the time limit is short

But the report of the majority seems such an imperfect interpretation of the will of Dr. Woodward and presents a scheme of studies so far removed from the needs and the wishes of the community that I am impelled to dissent and to bring in what I con sider to be a better plan.

Inspired Letters.

At the very beginning I dissented to cer ain expressions in the letter which was sent out to the prominent educators. Those exressions biased the replies and vitiate any onclusions drawn from them in favor of an ndustrial school. That letter may be found in the Daily Ledger of March 16th. In it the educators were told that Quincy "has present preponderance of working people, that the regular and higher education o girls is effectively carried out in the city chools and the Thayer Academy, that the comment of the managers favored "an industrial department" in addition to a preparatory department and a high school. Then these educators were asked to tell how to carry out this scheme or outline a better one. Of course it must have seemed to them a foregone conclusion that we were to have an industrial school. And, yet, only two or three commended such a plan unreservedly, the others threw the weight of their in fluence for the most part against it. Arthur Gilman, of the Harvard A.nuex, turned from a school based on the "inclustrial idea," and carefully outlined for us a school on the idea of a high and broad intellectual education. Mr. Crosswell, the principal of the Brearly school, of New York, said it might be well for us to meet a want in our girls' education a little beyond the field of the public High schools. Mr. W. T. Harris, of the National Bureau of Education, warned us against in troducing into our community one sided education. And Mrs. A. F. Palmer, while com mending in her address to us, such things a cooking, sewing and drawing, pleaded eloquently for the higher intellectual education of our girls. I am convinced the report of the majority misunderstands Mrs. Palmer

You know that this suburb is a high, level plateau, commanding fine views of th harbor, and admirably adapted for residence; that we are spending thousands of dollars in landscape improvements; that the new $10,000 depot (only 5½ miles south of Boston on the O. C. R. R., between Atlantic and Wollaston) is to bear the name chosen for the suburb. So put on your thinking cap and mail us the most appropriate and attractive name you can think of, and without delay.

Letters were received from H. R. Martending an invitation to the committee to visit the Drexel school; from H. G. Hall of

A communication was also received from the women who are interested in the Woodward Institute, requesting a hearing before the course of studies were adopted, and stating that they had organized as

An informal discussion followed on the equest. Some feared it would be a preedent and that in the future the women would be too active in the future government. A previous vote had been passed that suggestions in writing would be welcome, and a motion that this apply now was lost 4 to 6. It was then voted to grant the request of the women.

The Report.

The majority report of the sub-commit tee was then submitted by Rev. H. E. Cotton, as published in full in yesterday's LEDGER, with the following addition to the elementary department.

Spring Trade,

It is manifestly evident that Dr. woodward's stipulations in regard to the instructions to be taught in the proposed institute for girls, cannot be fully or adequately carried out with the means now in hand; therefore it is eminently in the powers of this board, through that necessity which knows no law, to curtail and leave out any of portion of that instruction as seems st to us and certainly it would appear the part of wisdom and common sense to conomize our resource and avoid as well well taught in our Public schools. However, to meet the not once-wise criticism in this regard and to come more within the literal interpretation of the will, your committee recommend in place of the above Elementary Department that we be ready to teach the course of studies now pursued in our Grammar schools to any girl between the ages of 10 and 15 who applies for it and can pass the requisite test. But it is our opinion that such a department will practically prove of small account both as to ber who will apply and the expense entailed on our resources

Rev. D. M. Wilson submitted a minority report, which was also printed in full in the

Both reports were accepted as progressive. Rev. H. A. Philbrook thought the minority report misrepresented the replies to the letter sent out. The letter was drawn up by the committee of which the minority was one and had been changed some at his request. There should be no objections to the letter. It was an unjust imputation and unkind for the minority to say he had not been permitted the advantage of reading the report of the majority. It was in his hands last Thursday before his report was printed. It was talked by the ladies on the street in advance of the report. The people had a wrong impression that the majority report was based on the industrial idea alone.

Rev. D. M. Wilson said his report was written before receiving the other report. Rev. H. E. Cotton objected to the word permitted;" might have said "advantage." Reports of Committees.

Boston, April 6.-There were twenty one committee meetings yesterday, but the business in nearly all was conducted in executive session, today being the limit for bringing in reports. In many cases further time will be asked and granted. The committee on rapid transit had a long and animated discussion of the proposed constitutional amendment rel ative to the taking of the entire tracts of lands in making public improvements, and when this session closed the members

The report of the rapid transit commisioners has come out at last. Street widen ing on a magnificent scale is recommended to satisfy the daily wants of $50,000 Bos tonians, and $15,000,000 allowed for land damages. Long tunnels are not favored, 5-cent fares are advocated and a metro politan commission to take charge of the entire matter is recommended.

The bill to promote the abolition of grade crossings was passed in the senate and the measure relating to the income from Boston's water supply was intro duced. A measure to prevent legal solicitation in cases of personal injury was depated in the house.

to Fight to a Finish.

ALBANY, April 6.—The Eastern league has decided upon a circuit of the clubs. Yesterday afternoon the baseball magnates of the Eastern league convened at the Kenmore Hotel. It was nearly 2 o'clock when President White called the meeting to order. The first order of busi was the making up of the circuit. The claims of Syracuse and Rochester, who were in arrears with their guarantee money, were considered. The representa-tives from both cities had hustled about in the short time given them, when called matter for a circuit of ten clubs. The circuit as adopted is as follows:

Northern district-Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Albany and Elmira.
Southern district—Philadelphia, Providence, New Haven, Troy and Binghamton The new order of business was the elec-

But Other States Must Be Conciliated. Blaine May Yet Be in the Race-Last Guns Fired in the Rhode Island Campaign-An Anti-Hill Meeting.

WASHINGTON, April 6.-The political caldron is beginning to seeth and boil. Politicians of large and small caliber from different sections of the country are dropping in here daily. Their purpose evidently is to ascertain the drift of the political current at this usually well-informed political center. A very prominent Republican politician, who has been here for some days, has made what he terms a careful diagnosis of the situation. He finds things mixed in a most remarkable manner. In New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio the leaders are at heart all against Harrison's renomination. But since Blaine's letter of withdrawal they have been drifting like a ship without a rudder or compass. Their trouble seems to be that there is no commanding figure in the shall prevent it or forbid our being mareast or west upon whom they can concen-

Of Inhalation has only begun to be appreciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is a rictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all diseases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency ca AERATED OXYCEN. It is

Eno Says He is Guilty of Wife-Murder.

A STRIKE AT FALL RIVER,

Serious Accident in Boston - Athletic Sports in Providence-Passed a Worthless Check -- Woman Lost in Seeking was instantly killed yesterday afternoon Her Husband - Various New England

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 9.—Peter Eno, the wife murderer, has been committed to jail without bail to answer any charges that the grand jury, to be held at New-buryport the first Monday in May, may bring against him. He was arrainged before Judge Stone at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The charge was read to him, and in a low voice he said, "Guilty." Judge Stone ordered a plea of "not guilty" entered, and a preliminary hearing was held. The government side was conducted by District-Attorney Moody and a strong case was presented. Twelve witnesses were heard for the government. Alvina Boucher, a French girl, stated that, with her sister, she passed Eno and his wife on Common street three times before the murder. The former was leaning with his left arm resting on the fence, his right hand around by the back of his coat. After she had gone past the third time witness heard a shot; turned around and saw the murdered woman fall and the prisoner run.

Mrs. Abbie Ferguson of Franklin, N. H., sister of the dead woman, testified that Eno came to her house two weeks ago, and and unoccupied. said he would like to get his wife, her sister Sadie and his boy Frankie together and he would kill them all. He also said that he would get his wife a box. Eno's statement that he was never married to the victim of his rage has been proven false. Documents were found showing that he was married under the name of Evangelise Delorme to Minnie Richards by Fred O. Zesch at Lawrence, July 30, Weavers Strike Because of Dissatisfaction with Management.

FALL RIVER, Mass., April 9.—The weavers employed in the Mechanic's mill struck work yesterday afternoon. They allege that the new management has been man-ipulating the machinery for some time to their disadvantage, to they cannot make as high wages as heretofore. The back-boys in the mill struck work early in the The striking weavers gathered in front of the mill gates shortly after they left work and indulged in talk of a iotous character.

One of their number, named George Baldwin, engaged in a fight with an overseer and was locked up at the central station. All the help in the mill have been complaining for some time past, and the spinners threatened to make trouble some weeks ago. Last night a few strikers reported the facts of the case to the Weavers' ssociation, and it is expected some redress will be offered in a short time.

Some Lively Sport at Providence. PROVIDENCE, April 9.-At the Metroole last evening, before 400 people, an exhibition of sparring and wrestling was given. John Cattamach, champion of New England, and Frank Herrick, both of this city, wrestled ten minutes, with no falls scored when time expired. Bob Fitzimmons, Australian champion, and Jim Dolan of this city then gave an interesting exhibition of sparring. John A. Sullivan of California and Jimmy Hurst of Boston wound up the proceedings with what had been intended to be a ten-round battle, but Hurst refused to box for more than six. In the fifth and sixth rounds Sullivan forced the work, and the limit to the rounds saved Hurst from defeat, and It was called a draw.

Providence Baseball Association. PROVIDENCE, April 9.—A meeting of the directors of the Providence Baseball associatisn was held at Hotel Dorrance last evening. It was decided that the players should report at once and engage in practice. Exhibition games will be arranged for this city and out of town, with such clubs as can be secured till April 30, when the regular championship season begins. Another pitcher will be secured and several changes in the personnel of the team are likely. The uniforms have been ordered, and if they can be finished in time the opening game will be played here Thursday, April 14, with Holy Cross of Worcester, Mass. The club will then play ex-hibition games April 15 and 16 with the New Haven club at New Haven.

More of Its Deadly Work.

BOSTON, April 9.-Last evening Timothy C. Barden and his wife, while riding on Federal street, near Beach, was run into by an electric car. The carriage was completely demolished and the occupants thrown to the ground. Mr. Barden received injuries to his right arm and head, his hip was bruised and the small of his back injured. Mrs. Barden received a general shaking up and several bodily injuries. Mr. Barden claims that the motorman did not ring the gong, and several witnesses to the accident state the same. IF BROOK street at Wollaston is extended under the Old Colony Railroad it will be a blessing to Wollaston for we believe the Quincy & Boston Street Railway will be quick to improve the opportunity and run its cars from Hancock street to the Plains and possibly to West Quincy as originally planned. The heavy grade to get over the Beale street bridge has been practically nsurmountable. It would be an improvement if Standish avenue run under Beale street to the depot and the Brook street extension, and then the Beale street incline could be made less steep. The proposed street railway line on the east of the Old Colony to Wollaston park and the "unnamed" suburb might then be extended on

Rising with the dripping hat in my hands I turned to go back, but the sight that then met my eyes caused me to drop everything and spring forward with a gasp of horror.

Moving as if in obedience to some power external or at least foreign to nerself as a mechanical figure might move, steadily, deliberately and yet blindly, Kate had advanced directly tovard the narrow chasm, and when I first beheld her she already seemed balancing on the brink. Before I could cover half the distance that separated us, she had set foot on the long beam which spanned the abyss, and had begun to walk along it. By the time I had reached the hither end she was half way over, stepping as composedly and securely as if she were on an ordinary sidewalk, though the slightest deflection from a straight course would have sent her down a hundred feet to the jagged bowlders below. Standing on the hither verge, every nerve so tensely strung that I seemed to hear the blood humming through my brain, I watched the passage of those small feet which I had admired that morning as they peeped coquettishly from beneath her dress in the railway carriage-1 watched them pass, step after step, along that awful beam. I suppose the transit must have been accomplished in less than a minute, but it seemed to me that I was watching it for hours. I uttered no sound lest it might rouse her from her trance and insure the catastrophe that else she might escape; I did not attempt to overtake her, fearful lest the beam should fail to support rigid, unbending, but sure of foot as a rope dancer, and at last I saw her reach the opposite side and stand once more on solid earth, preserved from death as it seemed by a miracle. I have no distinct recollection of how I followed; I only know that a few seconds afterward I was standing beside her with my arm

I led her forward a few paces out of which now turned me sick, and brought her to a plot of soft turf, beneath a tree with low spreading branches. The trance was evidently passing away, her limbs no longer had that unnatural rigidity her eyelids drooped heavily on the turf as if all power of self support had gone out of her. "I think not. I fancied I heard"-'We must get back to the hotel," she interrupted excitedly; "at least, I must get back. I don't like to be here. I wish you would leave me. I would rather say 'goodby' to you here than

"I never mean to say 'goodby' to you at all, Kate. If this is the trouble you hinted at, you overrate it entirely Why, two people out of every seven are somnambulists. "Whatever it is, I'm determined not to lose you. I shall tell your father when I see him that I love you, and that wherever he takes you I shall follow. No one can or shall keep us apart."

The resolution with which I spoke seemed to impress her somewhat. "You can speak to him if you will. But oh! it is no use. It cannot be; you don't understand. Let me go; goodby. No our united weight. I saw her pass on, do not come with me; please do not! have a reason for asking it. I will see you once more-tomorrow-before we leave. But let me go alone now if you love me.

She went walking quickly away through the wood. I watched her for a few moments and then returned to the grass plot beneath the tree and threw myself down there in a very dissatisfied sight of the ravine, the mere thought of frame of mind. The sun had set before I returned to the hotel.

AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful are being wrought. By this perfeetly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is a rictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all disases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to marvellous natural potency or AERATED OXYCEN. It is

By this pertract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is a riotly logical, because natural. The healing balaam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by eady germs. La Grippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. REFORM NEEDED.

Open Letter from Henry H. Faxon Dealing With Criminals.

Editors of the Daily Ledger: The most serious problem confronting the people of America today is that of dealing with criminals, drunkards and paupers. The officials of the Massachusetts Prison Association, who receive large salaries and lobby diligently at the State House, as well as some of those who have charge of our reformatories, let their sympathies run away with their judgment. Leniency to the vicious classes is oftentimes far more dangerous than the most rigorous punishment. Unless the system of conducting our penal institutions is radically changed, this country will soon

NEW HAVEN, April 13.-George Battis was placed on trial in the superior court yesterday for the murder of Charles P. Lombra of Wallingford. The indictment is drawn in the second degree. The men quarrelled in Lombra's cutcher shop on Dec. 12 last over a difference of 19 cents in change. In a scuffle which followed Lombra received several stab wounds from a butcher knife in the hands of Battis and death followed nine days later. The principal witnesses called yesterday were the medical examiner and attending physicians, all of whom testified as to the autopsy and the nature of the wounds. Other witnesses testified to the circumstances leading to the cutting.

THE MEASURE OF OUR DAYS.

In all our walks, in all our ways, Think not the measure of our days Is gauged by figures and by rules, As erst was taught us in the schools: But, as we help a brother's needs By noble acis and generous deeds, By giving comfort where we may, By lighting up a mourner's way; The sum of means that we employ To turn a fellow's ills to joy-This is the measure of our days.

A veteran in the wars of life, Of soul with stingy, envious Time Is he who makes his actions rhyme To universal brotherhood. Among his kind, it matters least So fellows by him have been blest His life is measured by his plan Of dealing with his fellow man. This is the measure of his days

And much methinks of time he gains. or all his labors, all his pains, For reaching outward far and near To succor want and shelter fear. No stingy paddock hems him in, To mean desires and groveling sin A widow's blessing him avails, An orphan's prayer some good entails. While stretching outward over man He converse holds with Nature's plan, And solving life's deep mysteries, And solving life's account.

He grasps eternal verities.

This is the measure of his days.

ORDERED TO VOTE "NO."

Doings of the Massachusetts Grand Lodge of Good Templars.

Worcester, Mass., April 14. — The grand lodge of Massachusetts I. O. G. T. held its annual session here. The morning session was devoted to routine business, and the grand lodge decree was conferred upon 125 applicants, and the reports of the officers were referred to appropriate committees. The entire member ship of the order is now composed of working lodges. The work of the year has largely been the organization of the new district lodge system.

The order has prepared a protest against the sale of liquor at the World's fair. The grand lodge is requested to provide a fund for district lodge work. Several changes are recommended in the by-laws, among them being a provision for special deputies to inspect the work of the lodges through the state. The grand superintendent of juvenile templars shows 43 temples with a membership of 2549, a net gain of 83. The report of the grand secretary shows 8867 members. The real situation is a net gain of 220 in the working members of the order. There are 166 lodges in the state. The treasurer's report shows a good held at Lynn in October, 1892.

In regard to these stories State Attorney Doolittle said: "The Hayden case has been kept on the docket because we expect to get hold of certain evidence which is a matter of fact, but as yet unproved. When that evidence is obtained, the case will be tried again in this court. You may say that we are expecting to get that evidence, and that there is a probability that the case may be tried at no distant date."

Commissioner Ewell believed Council should state what streets should be watered, how assessments should be levied and $1000 appropriated and the $1000 from assessments would not go far.

Councilman Bryant would recommend Elm. School and Common streets.

Councilman Powers thought it would please the people better to water Copeland and Crescent streets than Common street, and claimed it was as wise to sprinkle streets rebuilt five years ago as last year. Councilman Federhen moved that the streets be Washington, Hancock, School, Franklin, Common and Adams. Councilman Fallon moved to strike out Common and insert Copeland, Crescent and Water. Hs favored a larger appropriation for sprinkling, and thought the street railways should contribute.

Councilman Hammond would except Crescent in favor of Copeland and Water streets.

Councilman Powers would not drop Crescent street. He moved to refer the whole matter to the Committee on Streets. Councilman Bryant believed Common street should be watered if any. It would be foolish to sprinkle Water street which was about to be paved.

The question of striking out Common street was put and the vote was 4 to 3.

Councilman Bryant wanted all to vote. Pending verification the motion was withdrawn and one made to refer whole matter to Committee on Streets.

They have done pretty much as they have wished in their colony here, have published their newspapers, and have held their incendiary meetings on Sundays in the public parks. The government is fully alive to the grave dangers of allowing such a state of affairs to continue, especially after the startling discoveries made by the numerous detectives employed on the Walsall anarchist case, and is preparing to act effectively at the proper time, which probably is not far distant. The government at present is debating the expediency of proceeding first against the anarchist journals, which every week

At the trial the prosecution purposely neglected to bring out how the chloroform was obtained and for what use it was in-

Nevertheless, the chloroform incident received the earnest attention which, after special inquiries made by selected de-tectives, at the risk of their lives, became convinced that there existed a conspiracy to chloroform and kidnap celebrated police-men, high government officials and foreigners of wealth visiting England. These men, when chloroformed, were to be slipped away, to places of confinement in the anarchists quarters and to be held for

This insane plan has been formulated by anarchist leaders for the purpose of filling the treasury of the English groups and thus rendering possible the more extensive propagation of anarchy by means of literature and explosives. The number and identity of all conspirators have not yet been revealed, although said to be known to the government. The government believes that at an early date it will be in full possession of the details and in a position to proceed against the men involved in the conspiracy.

Of Inhalation has only begun to be appreciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfeetly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it 'out. It is a cure that is s rictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all discases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to he marvellous natural potency c. AERATED OXYCEN. It is he new medicine of nature herself.

Special Programme in the Churches Sun- Commissioner Ewell Objects to the Location of Street Railway Turnout.

> Some surprise was expressed yesterday when it was observed where the Quincy & Boston Street Railway were intending to put in tracks in Fountain Square, near City Hall. Surprise that the City Council should have granted permission to put in more turnouts that would further interfere with travel to the depot.

But it seems the tracks were not being located where granted, as the turnout to the car-house as laid down on the plan, left the main track directly in front of the entrance to the Hancock boarding-house. Commissioner Ewell was quick to see this and ordered the work stopped at 5 P. M.

President Graham and the directors of the company appealed to Mayor Fairbanks is taking his place. in the evening, but he was powerless to grant a new location. It is understood the company will petition the City Council at its next meeting for the Thursday evening. Woodward in G. changes desired. Meanwhile work on connecting the tracks is suspended. The company was granted permission to run two spurs from the main track to the car station, one starting in front of the boarding house and the other in front of the house on the north side of Savil street. The company come to the conclusion that one would be enough, and it was the intention to build a long turnout, and run from that to the car house. This would not be objectionable if the turnout did not begin so near City Hall.

The County Tax.

The county tax of 1892 has been apportioned by the County Commissioners as follows: The total tax this year is $140,-000, which is $35,000, or one-third larger than in 1891. Because of the rapid in-103 crease in population of this city in three Selection 16 years, our tax has jumped from $8,129.34 of $5,198.90, or over 63 per cent. Quincy still ranks third in the county, but is now close to Milton, while Brookline has no rival for first place. Brookline, Milton and Quincy will pay this year $77,102.69, over one-half the total. The two years are given below in comparison:

Separation.

Ah! we were very near tonight
The simple word for which we longed,
And there were moments when I thought Our impulse could not be wronged:

Why was it, when you changed your place And passed so close beside my chair, That all the life within me thrilled With pleasure that was half despair?

Why was it that I felt your gaze Still fixed upon me as I read, Yet, with a strange, defiant fear, Refused too well to turn my head?

How came it that we lingered on As one by one the rest withdrew, Till, without seeing, I was sure That I was left alone with you?

Could you not hear my pages fast Turned over with a restless hand? Did they not whisper all your wish In words not hard to understand?

And, in the stillness, did they sound Like breathless rustlings of the leaves That, trembling, wait the blackening storm Which silent hangs above the trees?

A word had done it! With a flas Of Heaven's own light from heart to heart Resistless love had rent the pride That kept our pent up lives apart!

But, ere it came, a sudden breath. The rising wind of common life, Blew cool upon us; and we sighed And turned us to our lonely strife.

She put the lamp down on the table beside mine, and then stood quite still in the moonlight, her face wholly expressionless and without motion. It was an appalling thing to see her thus. I, too, remained motionless, but it was because I knew not what to do. To awaken her might bring on the worst consequences If she were not disturbed, she might possibly retire as quietly and unconsciously as she had come. But the mystery of her being there at all appeared utterly inexplicable. What had led her, in her trance, to visit my room? How had she ever known where it was? What had she dreamed of doing here, and above all how had she contrived to enter through a bolted door with as much ease as though she had been a Answers to puzzles published during spirit? Perhaps this was but a spirit the week will appear the following Monday. or a phantom of my own brain! Was 1

> She stretched out her hand, not following its motion with her eyes, but mechanically, and, as it were, involuntarily. She laid it on my coat-on the pocket which contained the diamonds. Then slowly and deliberately, and still with averted face and eyes and that long drawn, slumberous breathing, she unbuttoned the fastenings one after one, and her soft, tapering fingers closed upon

Meanwhile my mind had been rapidly canvassing all the pros and cons of action; and I had come to the conclusion that it would be better for her that I should interfere. Of my personal interest in the matter I believe that I did not think; indeed, knowing that the diamonds would not be lost, there was no reason why I should. But it would not do to risk compromising Kate. It was dangerous enough that she should be here at all, but that she should carry away the diamonds with her was inadmissible. I rose from my bed and laid my hand gently on her wrist.

She was no spirit but warm flesh and blood. For a few moments the restraint in which I held her seemed to baffle and distress her, I fancied I could feel her pulse beat under my fingers; a kind of spasm crossed her face, her evelids quivered and the eyes moved in their sockets. Of Inhalation has only begun to be appreciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furshes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is strictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all discases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency of AERATED OXYCEN. It is the new medicine of nature herself.

At the recent meetings for the considertion of the water question frequent allusions have been made to the fact that many citizens and several members of the City Council have changed their minds on the subject during the past year, in regard to not only the advisability, but the possibility of obtaining from the Legislature an amendment to the Act of 1891, granting the city the right to establish an independent supply. We consider the argument made by Councilman Bass, at the last meeting of the City Council in reply to the statement of Councilman Federhen, that the members of the committee having the matter in charge last year, had evidently changed their minds, to be a good one. One reason was that during the time the The Probable Name of the New matter was before the legislative committee a remonstrance was presented from a number of citizens, who, as the Councilman stated, are men whose influence before the legislature and at the polls, must be admitted. It is probable that not one of the gentlemen have changed their minds, and would be much opposed to the establishment of a new plant now as then and we hope that the opponents of the works who are claiming that the grant may yet be obtained, will bear in mind this fact, that the same or a much stronger opposition would be met if the matter tic, will be "Norfolk Downs." A were again to come before the Legislature. The remonstrance which was read by Councilman Bass is as follows:

The Committee on Police of the city overnment,-Councilmen Bass, Federhen, Jr., Hammond, Litchfield and Rinn-gave a hearing last evening to those interested in the establishment of a police force by ordinance. All the committee were present; also Mayor Fairbanks, Councilman Gray, Deputy Manager Langley, Constables Furnald and Faxon, Officers Hanson, Hunt and Turner, Probation Officer Spear, Lawyer Tirrell, Chief Engineer Ripley, Charles Jones and others.

Chairman Bass presided.

Henry H. Faxon was the first speaker and he was in opposition to the movement. He quoted figures of other cities, showing that the percentage of crime and arrests in Quincy was very small in comparison with other cities, and that the cost of the police force was only one-quarter. The south cents. all the year round has been struggling with unfavorable conditions, doing less business than a year ago, and looking in vain for a material change. The east has been doing a large business, rather less than a year ago on the whole, but especially less than many traders expected to do this year. This, with very thin profits, makes the season disappointing to many. These conditions continue, and are reflected in returns this week. Yet, the volume of trade in the whole country has been larger than in any previous year. News from cities is rather better in the east, cheering as usual from the west, but somewhat less satisfactory as to the south.

declared in Rockingham county. It is the war of temperance against the illegal sale of liquor. All over the county has a cry the people on summary action.

they want it. Practically liquor is sold everywhere in the county, and the only interruption to traffic is the periodical visit of officers and the succeeding fine of hibit, but it has resulted in establishing a larger number of drinking places in pro-Burr treasurer, and Stephen B. Bosworth, portion to the popolation, than can be last night made an assignment to James Talk About Corruption.

The officials answer this with a list of nearly fifty indictments for illegal liquor selling in the county, found by the grand intry which recorded to the county of the jury, which reported yesterday.

Law and order leagues have been formed

n different localities, and anti-liquor meetings are constantly held, but, in spite of all, liquor is openly sold in all the towns and the one city of the county, except in the extremely small villages. At this meeting it was strongly put forth that the people appointed officers to enforce the law, and that if they failed in their duty it became the business of the after this organization, but nothing aggresive was done. Last Sunday Rev. Mr. Clancy was awakened by a noise in his stable, and when he looked out he found his loft in flames. He man ged to rescue his horse and some of his furniture, but of the Church of the Unity in this city, both his house and the stable were burned | and has accepted the call to the Arlington to the ground.

That Settled It. The county is aroused, and it will not long before decisive steps are taken. One of the first moves was the offering of $300 reward by the town of Epping, and an additional reward by citizens of $400 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who set fire to the Congregational parsonage.

The incendiarism intimidated some; it had the opposite effect on others. The people at large are determ ned that the offenders shall not go unpanished. But there is a current of feeling that something be done with the liquor question; that either the prohibition laws be en-forced or else the license system be established in the state. The temperance men of this county generally want the present law to stand; a few think license would be an improvement. The respectable liquor men desire a license law, while the cheaper class, those who are overrunning the county today and causing all the trouble, prefer the existing statute.

Of Inhalation has only begun to be appreciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out, It is a cure that is strictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all dieases of Throat and Lungs, succurb to the marvellous natural potency c. AERATED OXYCEN. It is the new medicine of nature herself.

A GLORIOUS EASTER.

First Church.

At the First church the Sunday School and congregation united in the celebration of Easter. Special Easter music was rendered under the direction of Mr. Harlow, and the Sunday School exercises were under the direction of the Superintendent C. H. Porter. The services were largely attended and very impressive. The floral decorations were very handsome.

St. John's Church.

The Easter ceremonies at St. John's church were held with all the pomp and grandeur ascribed to them in the rubric of the Catholic church.

The high altar was lavishly draped with white silk, trimmed with gold lace, while potted plants and cut flowers added a sweet fragrance to the scence. Myriads of palms and hot house flowers, and tent a recovered with routed plants and for the last two years has been the housekeeper in May Davenport's soft light to the dazzling scene. A German Fable. A famous hen's my story's theme, Who ne'er was known to tire Of laying eggs—but then she'd scream So loud o'er every egg 'twould seem The house must be on fire. A turkey cock, who ruled the walk, A wiser bird and older, Could bear no more; so off did stalk Right to the hen and told her: "Madam, that scream, I apprehend,

It surely helps the eggs no whit, So lay your eggs and done with it. I pray you, madam, as a friend, Cease that superfluous clatter; You know not how't goes through my head!" "Humph! very likely," madam said,

Then proudly putting forth a leg-"Uneducated barnyard fowl, You know no more than any owl The noble privilege and praise Of authorship in modern days; I'll tell you why I do it: First, you perceive, I lay my egg. And then—review it."

Blaine and Pauncefote Sign the Modus Vivendi.

THE EXCLUSION OF CHINESE

Pacific Coast Senators Preparing for Bitter Struggle on the Question-How

The modus is in the form of a supple mental convention to the treaty of arbitration recently negotiated and ratified. The modus vivendi states that both gov-ernments will prohibit during the sealing season the killing of seal in that part of the Behring sea lying eastward of the line of demarcation, described in article No. 1 of the treaty of 1867, between the United States and Russia, and each government will enjoin its citizens and vessels to an servance of this agreement. The United States, it is understood, is allowed to kill or the subsistence of the natives on the slands of St. Paul and St. George 7500 seals, the same restriction as was made last year, and the United States binds it self to observe this prohibition

The vessels of either the United States or Great Britain, or citizens of either country, offending against this agreement may be seized by either of the high con-tracting parties, but as soon as practicable should be handed over to the authorities of the station to which they belong, who shall have sole jurisdiction to try the offense and impose the penalties for the same. In general it may be said that the document is a renewal of the agreement of 1891, with the addition of a clause pro viding for the settlement of damages sustained by the Canadian sealers through the interruption of their business in case the arbitration goes against the United preciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is strictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving nfluence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by leadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all diseases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency of AERATED OXYCEN. It is the new medicine of nature herself.

Address to the Convention. Gentlemen of the Republican Convention We are here to choose four delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention to be neld in Minneapolis, June 7, and to make such a declaration of the principles of our party as are held by the Republicans of this commonwealth. We approach the work with absolute confidence that our purposes is longer that confidence that our purpose is honest, that our cause is just, and that a glorious triumph awaits us.

This is a business man's campaign, and every human being in this country engaged in any occupation by which he gains an honora-ble livelihood is in this sense a business man. The questions that confront us are that directly concern the everyday ss of life. Our mercantile, agricularal, mining and manufacturing interests rethreatened. The issues of the campaign avolve the financial solvency of the country, the protection of our industries and the wel fare of all the people.

It is so obvious as hardly to need stating that when the business of the country is good and the people are occupied, the highest meas-ure of happiness is attained. When the business of the country languishes, credit halts, when business stops, money ceases to flow, and the distress which follows reaches the ut-It is the business of the government to pro-ide a currency that shall always be sound o the world. While we welcome peaceful, self-respecting and self-supporting people, we feel the need of legislation which will more effectually shut out the lawless, degraded and diseased, who become only a tax upon the country. This is a better country to live in than any country while fees of the globe, and it is our task to These are some of the important questions that demand our consideration in the coming cam, aign; questions which intimately concern the business men. The Republican party makes and always has made the business of the country its great interest. Ever since its formation it has had to do with the most stirring questions in the history of our nation.

No one claims that all of the political virtue is lodged in any one party, but this much can be said of the Republican party since its or-ganization, that whenever questions have arisen involving the liberties of the people, the purity of the ballot, the honor of our country and the integrity of its credit, it has been by the prompt, decisive and patriotic action of the Republican party that these questions have been settled upon an honorable and satisfactory basis.

Gentlemen, such is the work that our party still has in hand.

has always been in politics with more or less prominence since the foundation of the government. It was during the last year of Mr. Cleveland's administration that it was projected into a conspicuous position. It became a new and fresh issue born of Mr. Cleveland's political necessities. Mr. Sullivan raised a point of order against the bill that it was based on a petition regarding malt liquors. As there were intoxicating liquors which were neither malt nor spirituous, the bill was too broad for the petition. This was discussed at some length, and a court de-cision was cited to support the point. Finally the speaker ruled the point well taken. The negro needs emancipation from the cotton picking gang almost as badly as he needed it from the broader bondage before the war. His poor white neighbor has the same need, perhaps intensified. The men and money of New England were the largest factor in his emancipation from slavery, and the same factor is now engaged in freeing him from slavery to cotton picking, and while so doing the money will return a hundred fold, for it needs no prophet to foresee that furnishing machines to pick the cotton must to immensely profitable. preciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is s rictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all dieases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency c. AERATED OXYCEN. It is the new medicine of nature herself.

Of Inhalation has only begun to be apeciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfeetly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is s'rictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all discases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency of AERATED OXYGEN. It is the new medicine of nature herself.

NORFOLK

In selecting the above name from among the nearly 19,000 suggestions received, the committee (Messrs. Josiah Quincy, J. R. Kendrick and E. H. Woods) briefly state their reasons as follows: 'The name Norfolk Downs seems to us, upon the whole, to combine the elements of appropriateness and novelty better than any other sent in. While the old English word 'Downs' is well known, it has not, we believe, been much, if at all, used in this country. Like the words 'Fells' and 'Beach Bay Fens,' it is descriptive of the character of a tract of land. With the selection, and believe it will prove a thoroughly acceptable and practical name—one that will wear well for all time, and of which all future residents will be proud. Miss Louise H. Murdock of 22 Rutland Square, Boston, is the fortunate winner of the $1000 lot. We extend our warmest thanks to all who them selection and the great beauty and fitness of hundreds of the names sent in. We only wish we could use

You now have the opportunity of an interest in this SUPERB PROPERTY, UPON THE MOST HELPFUL AND PRACTICAL SYSTEM OF HOME BUILDING ever devised. We offer you below the greatest inducements and most liberal plan in existence today. Remember that this system embodies and is the climax of the work of years. Notice especially that nowhere else are you offered like advantages, like benefits, like opportunities for profitable investment or for desirable homes. Read carefully.

WE DO NOT WEARY YOU WITH MUCH TALK.

THE NEW $10,000 STATION.

A belt line of the Boston & Quincy Electric Road will run upon the central grass plot on Billings road, entirely through Norfolk Downs and Wollaston Park, bringing every lot upon either property within a few minutes' ride of the three stations—Atlantic, Norfolk Downs and Wollaston Heights. Our own car, especially constructed for us, will run over this line. The fare to either station will be but 3 cents, in the shape of book tickets, which will be issued only to house owners.

SPECIAL TIME TABLE.

We are laying out thousands of dollars in the development of this suburb. Shade trees will be planted wherever needed; concrete sidewalks and well-made streets are now being constructed.

Although the above depot is not yet completed, we have made special arrangements with the Old Colony R. R. to stop the following trains regularly every day until further notice, when regular schedule of practically all local trains will be issued: Leave Boston—9.40, 12.02, 1.55, 3.52, 4.42. Sunday—12.45. Leave Norfolk Downs—11.02, 12.10, 2.55, 4.13, 5.43, 7.16. Sunday—1.51, 6.21.

DESCRIPTION.

As another of our free public improvements, Norfolk Downs will be lighted from one end to the other by the arc system of electric lighting. The contract has been closed with the Quincy Electric Light Company, and the material has already been ordered. ELECTRICAL CONNECTION WILL ALSO BE SUPPLIED TO PRIVATE RESIDENCES WITHOUT COST.

PRIVATE BOAT WHARF AND BATH HOUSES.

We are about to construct a substantial and safe wharf for the exclusive use of residents; a competent man will be in constant charge to attend to the wants of those who may have their own private boats, and to let public rowboats and saliboats to other residents. We shall also build a number of first-class bath houses and place an attendant in charge; persons living on the property will be allowed the regular use of those houses without charge.

While precision is provided by a gradual rise on the immediate left of the track. This the countering Quincy with Boston. The running time is 12 to 15 minutes, and commutation fares are 8½ cents.

RESTRICTIONS.

Norfolk Downs will be lighted from as upurb liming in the contract has a substantial and safe what for the exclusive use of the substantial and safe wharf for the exclusive use of the residents, and to let public rowboats and saliboats to other residents. We shall also build a number of first-class bath houses and place an attendant in charge; persons living on the property will be allowed the regular use of this locality, our suburb has an unbroken harbor outlook.

CITY, COUNTRY AND SEASHORE.

While precisely in the countering Quincy with none of its disadvantages.

While precise the first that the fights stations, on the Gold Colony R. R., 5½ miles from a supurb leading and substant in fares are 8½ cents.

Norfolk Downs is situated midway between Atlantic and Wollaston Park. The two properties thus form a supurb leading and a residuate left of the track. This the time the substantial and safe wharf for the exclusive use of the stream of the following restrictions, which we shall maintain an atten

We shall employ a special police officer at Norfolk Downs. In a word, we may say that both the new suburb and Wollaston Park will be conducted entirely in the interests of residents, as one large private park, and every effort made to keep the rougher element and other objectionable outsiders away from the properties. The shore fronts will never be sold, but will be kept entirely for the benefit of our patrons, and not for the general public.

While practically in the country, Norfolk Downs affords all the advantages of city residence, with none of its disadvantages. Accessibility is one of its strong points. Furthermore it offers ALL THE ATTRACTIONS OF THE SEASHORE. For both winter and summer residence, it may be said to be unequalled in the vicinity of Boston. Those who cannot leave their homes in summer residence, it may be said to be unequalled in the vicinity of Boston. Those who cannot leave their homes in summer residence, it may be said to be unequalled in the vicinity of Boston. Those who cannot leave their homes in summer will find every requisite for bathing, boating, etc., at their very doors. An excellent gravel beach extends along the front of our property for nearly half a mile, the water is of a good temperature for comfortable bathing, and Quincy bay affords unexcelled opportunities for boating, as the Dorchester and Quincy clubs, long established, clearly demonstrate.

THE CREAT $10,000 OFFER.

We are to divide among those who buy the first 60 days $10,000. This amount will we are to divide among those who buy the first 60 days $10,000. This amount will be distributed regardless of results and totally independent of the opening sales, whether $50,000, $30,000 or only $5000 worth of property be sold. The proposition will be ABSOLUTE; no lottery or chance scheme about it. It is simply that we propose, notwithstanding our marvellously low prices, to give a rebate of $10,000 as a credit on the principal (or cost of lot) to all who join forces with us the first 60 days. This will operate only as a reduction upon the cost of your lots, and is not in any way to be confounded with, or to reduce the rate of your payments. It simply means that the cost of your lots will be reduced by that proportion of $10,000 which your purchase. the cost of your lots will be reduced by that proportion of $10,000 which your purchase bears to the total amount sold within the first 60 days. For instance, if $10,000 worth of property be sold, $10,000 will be distributed, and your lots will cost you nothing. This, however, we surmise will not happen, but we shall be satisfied if $30,000 worth of property be sold.

In view of the low prices which we have temporarily established in order to insure a successful opening, and of certain indications which have come to us that this is likely to lead to the buying up of the best lots in blocks of such size as to interfere with the interest of purchasers who buy for homes, we have decided not to sell for the first 60 days MORE THAN TWO LOTS TO ANY ONE PURCHASER.

This is done entirely in the interest of those who buy for homes and for the future welfare of Norfolk Downs, and is forced upon us by the above indications.

LIFE INSURANCE.

We agree to give every purchaser in good health at the time of his second payment a ertificate entitling his heirs to a deed of the lot selected, in case of his death before paynents have been completed, and to delive to said heirs, with deed, receipt in full for price of lot, provided payments are not in arrears.

We do not take out a policy on your life with an insurance company; we do not issue a "policy" of our own, in the usual sense of the word; it is simply an agreement on our part to protect your family against loss of sums already paid; and, further, to give outright whatever remains unpaid.

DELIVERY OF DEED.

Many wish to build soon, not waiting till lot is paid for and deed given, as is usually necessary. To help you in this we will deliver to you your deed at the time one-fourth the price of your lot is paid, either in cash or on payments. This will enable you to obtain cooperative bank assistance and proceed at once to build. For our security we will trust to a second mortgage to amount of remaining three-fourths, said mortgage to be recorded after bank mortgage is placed. We retain the right, however, to protect ourselves against excessive loans, and we cannot grant both this and the $300 building offer to the same persons.

Billings Road lots require at least $3000 houses with front wall 20 feet from street

Boston, April 22.-Mayor Matthews and he commission appointed by Mayor Hart in 1889 to revise the building laws of Boston were before the committee on cities. They presented an act to take the place of the old one, as they recommended in their report of 1890. There are several imporvides that buildings over seventy feet in height shall rest upon three rows of piles, or an equivalent number of piles arranged in less than three rows. Mayor Matthews said that it was very essential that the clause should be added. His reasons for this was, he said, because the buildings settling. Their foundations were very poor, but that could be remedied if the builders were compelled to erect such foundations as the new act requires. The act also provides "that an inspector shall not give a permit for the erection of any building until he has carefully inspected the plans and specifications thereof, ascertained that the building has sufficient strength, and that the means of ingress and egress are sufficient." The act will in all probability be reported. The committee on manufactures ported against amending the law of 1891 as to municipal illumination, by which cities and towns may own and operate The petition of the mayor of Cambridge

THE GRANITE CONVENTION.

Its Importance to Quincy Trads-The Delegates Entertained.

The convention of the National Marble and Granite Dealers' Association of United States, which has been held in this city, adjourned Thursday afternoon.

The result of this convention has been tant changes in the act, and among the number is that relating to the foundation made from piles. This change Mayor Mathews was decidedly in favor of. It prosociations. The convention will also have a tendency to shut out the middlemen from membership in the Western associations as they are in the Eastern associations.

The convention means a great deal more in Back Bay, or a majority of them, were to Quincy than most people are aware. Mrs. Dow states that she probably left her trunk unlocked, but was certain that she locked the door to her room. The work was no doubt that of professional false-key thieves, as similar jobs of a lesser nature have recently been perpetratrated in Back Bay apartment houses. No one in the hotel saw or heard thieves. The police were notified of the robbery and detectives put to work on the case. It is thought that the stolen property can be discovered by means of a letter "D." engraved on the back of the watch case.

SOMETHING IN THE WIND. Certificate of Organization Filed for a New Railroad Company.

HARTFORD, April 22.—The capital stock of the New York and Boston Inland Railroad company, a certificate of organiza-tion of which was filed yesterday in the office of the state secretary, is $10,000,000, divided into 100,000 shares. The principal office is to be at Middletown, and the stockholders are mostly from that place and Boston. The board of directors consists of Franklin Mead, E. D. Hewins and T. B. Everett of Boston; J. S. Day of Brookline, Mass.; D. Luther Briggs, Leonard Bailey, L. Harris Warner, F. H. Alvord and E. R. White of Middletown. Messrs. Mead, Hewins and Everett of the board of directors depose under oath that the amount of capital stock required by law to be paid in, 20 per cent., or $450,000, has been subscribed in good faith; that 10 per cent. of this has been pald in cash, and that it is intended to construct the road. The next step will be the bringing of a petition to the railroad commissioners for an approval or the lay-out. No petition has as yet been brought. Exactly what the new agitation means is not clear, but it is evident that something is in the wind. For some time past there has been more or less quiet talk about some capi-talists with a heavy backing making use of the defunct Hartford and Harlem and the "Olmstead Parallel" companies routes.

DELIBERATE DETERMINATION

To Erect a Statue of Columbus on the "Green" at New Haven.

NEW HAVEN, April 22 .- The executive ommittee of the Knights of Columbus were in session in this city over ten hours yesterday, discussing the details of the elebration by that order of the Columbian quadro-centennial. One result of the deliberations is the determination to erect a statue to Columbus in this city. The sentiment of the meeting was that the memorial should be placed on the Green if the permission of the city authorities can be obtained. The statue is the work of M. Buryens of Ghent, from a design by Richard Andrews of the Boston Art Narmal school. The figure is 81-2 in height of bronze and will cost about $17,000. The dedicatory exercises will occur on Oct. 11. Three will be a parade and other attractions peculiar to such an occasion. It is the intention of the committee having the matter in charge, to have for the orator at the unvieling a gent lemen of national reputation. Grover Cleveiand of New York it is understood, has been communicated with on this point.

GOD OUR SHEPHERD.

LESSON IV, SECOND QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, APRIL 24.

too, was a kingdom psalm. It is one of the most helpful and practical of all the psalms for the daily life, but we are constantly enjoying kingdom truth by anticipation. It is true for us now in a measure, but the fullness of fulfillment is yet future. David knew how he cared for his sheep, how he fed them, protected them, led them and all but laid down his life for them. He firmly believed that in much greater de gree Jehovah as a shepherd cared for him. He is the good, great, chief Shepherd, who ac-tually laid down His life for the sheep, rose again from the dead, knows all His sheep by name, seeks them when they go astray will never lose one of them, and when He appears in glory will reward all the under shepherds who have been faithful to Him John x, 11, 14, 27-30; Heb. xiii, 20; Luke xv, 6; I Pet. v, 4). No good thing will He we withhold from any who are truly His, but will supply all their need according to His great riches (Ps. lxxxiv, 11; xxxiv, 10 Phil. iv, 19). To believe heartily and live daily upon this one verse would bring joy to many a sad heart. A statement like this that does not bring us joy and peace is simply not believed. As to what the chief Shepherd will do for Israel when He come in His glory read Isa. xl, 9-11; Ezek. xxxiv 11 - 23.

2. "He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters." Or, as in the margin, pastures of tender grass and waters of quietness When sheep lie down in good pasture they must be abundantly satisfied, and with quiet water close at hand what more can they want? What glories of millennia blessedness are here foreshadowed for Israel! and they shall dwell safely and none shall make them afraid (Ezek. xxxiv, 13-15, 28). No more hunger nor thirst, and the Lamb in the midst of the throne shall feed them and shall lead them into living fountains of waters (Rev. vii, 16, 17). But what about the believer now? Jesus Christ Himself is not only our Redeemer, but He is also our green pasture and fountain of living waters. "He that eateth me shall live by me," and "He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood dwelleth in me, and I in him," and "the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life" (John vi, 56 57; iv, 14). 3. "He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake." He is the great restorer, and when He comes again He will restore NEW LONDON, Conn., April 22.—A all things of which the prophets have spoken. Then a king shall reign in right eousness and princes shall rule in judg here Wednesday morning on discovering ment. Righteousness shall be the girdle that she had mistaken the Norwich for the of His loins and faithfulness the girdle of Stonington line. She gave the name of His reins (Acts iii, 21; Isa. xxxii, 1; xi, 5) As to present experience, as He is the onl Saviour, so He is the only restorer, and all our dealings must be personally with Himself. Salvation, once ours, cannot be lost He gives himself to us and he is ours forever and where He truly begins a work He will carry it on (John x, 27, 28; Phil. i, 6). But a very little thing may interrupt our communion and cause us to walk in darkness The least turning from righteousness wil cause a cloud between our souls and Him, but as all clouds are earth born, let us live in the heavenlies where we belong (Eph. ii 5, 6,) and we may have uninterrupted com munion. Or if a cloud arise through our failure to abide in Him, one truly penitent look to Him and He will restore our souls to conscious fellowship with Himself and not a cloud between.

4. "Yea, though I walk through the val ley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil, for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." Possibly there is a reference to the awful valley of death that shall be in connection with the judg ment upon the enemies of Israel when i shall require seven months to bury the dead. (Compare Ezek. xxxix, 12; Joel iii, 2. In those days Israel, the rod of God, sha be His comfort (Ps. lxxiv, 2; cx, 2; Jer. x 16; Mic. vii, 14). As to present experience we can rejoice that the sting of death which is sin (I Cor. xv, 55-57), has been taken away. Sin stung Jesus to death, and left its sting in Him, so that death cannot now harm any child of God. We may never die, but, like Enoch and Elijah, be trans lated body and soul (I Cor. xv, 51, 52). But if Jesus should yet tarry awhile and we pass out from the body for a little season, the promise will be as good in death as it has been in life. "I, the Lord thy God, wil hold thy right hand, saying, Fear not, I will help thee" (Isa. xli, I3). To die is gain, to depart and be with Christ is far better. Absent from the body is present with the Lord (II Cor. v, 8; Phil. i, 21, 23) Not for one moment will the Saviour leave us, so that abiding in Him there may not even be a shadow. Many have found it so, and found it sunshine all the way. and round it sunshine all the way.

5. "Thou preparest a table before me in price are stamped on the bottom of each shoe.

Of Inhalation has only begun to be appreciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfeetly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is s rictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all diseases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency ca AERATED OXYCEN. It is the new medicine of nature herself.

Death of Miss Elizabeth Franklin Harwood at Providence.

PROVIDENCE, April 23.-Miss Elizabeth Franklin Harwood of Marion, Mass., daughter of the late Rear Admiral A. A. Harwood, died at 26 Green street yester-day in her 61st year. The admiral's father was a well known English actor, who came to America early in the century, and was united in marriage with Miss Bache, a granddaughter of Benjamin Franklin. Miss Harwood inherited some of her grandfather's gifts as a player, her performance of Mrs. Jarley in "Mrs. Jarley's Wax-Work Show," being one of the most delightful inpersonations of the American stage. Miss Harwood came to this city on April 9 to undergo an operation three days later. She appeared to rally from its days later. She appeared to rally from its effects and was fully expected to recover, but an unfavorable turn was taken. It is almost inconceivable that our Southern States, so abundantly blessed with a splendid climate, a most productive soil and a virtual monopoly of a world-used plant, should be in such poor financial condition, and yet what seemingly should be the source of great wealth, the cotton plant, is in reality the very thing that is bringing the South year by year nearer to bankruptcy. Cotton has been planted to such an extent, to the exclusion of other crops, that on Oct. 8, 1891, a convention of cotton planters as sembled at Memphis, Tenn., to devise some plan for decreasing the production of cotton and the increase of such food products as are used on the farms, thereby making the farmers self-sustaining and independent. The sentiment of the convention was that the South must raise more food or go hungry. About 25,000,000 of acres are planted in cotton, for which there is a cash maritet, and yet the paradox remains that, as a rule, the planter has mortgaged all his crop before planting a seed-and he finds, $20,000,000 worth of cotton is ploughed under each year for want of pickers. A release from this thraldom is now at hand,

Waco, Tex., Dec. 1, 1891. To whom it may concern:

Recognizing the importance to the South of Cotton, and the heavy expense of picking it, we, the undersigned members of the Waco Board of Trade, have watched with great interest, the development of the Lone Star Picking Machine and on Nov. 26, having been informed by the President of the Company that a test would be made by the machine, went out to the Evans farm, about nine miles from Waco, where a field had been reserved for that purpose, and we made a careful and impartial investigation of its work. We are fully eonvinced that the ROME, April 22.-Owing to the difficulmachine, as now improved by said Comties encountered in reconstructing the cabinet all the members of the old minispany, picks a larger per cent. of cotton, a eleaner staple, and in all respects far superior to human hands, as demonstrated to ters, except Signor Colombo, minister of us on above mentioned date. Congratulating the South and the officers of said Company upon this important invention, we are, respectfully, (Signed,) R. B. PARROTT, Prest. SAM SANGER, Vice-Prest. JOHN T. BATTLE, Chair. Com.

SUBURBAN HOMES

WOLLASTON HEIGHTS.

Spring, Visit Wollaston Heights, Six Miles from Boston, on the Old Colony Railroad. Forty-four trains daily to and from Wollaston Heights. Low fares. Rapid transit. Wollaston Heights was not born yesterday, but was named by Capt. Wollaston 270 years ago. It is not a new thought. It is a crystalized fact.

Twenty-two years of patient toil, large outlays and persistent endeavor have brought Wollaston Heights to its present excellence as a home for the people. It is not of mushroom growth.

as a home for the people. It is not of mushroom growth.

Three hundred and fifty first-class houses already built and occupied on land bought of the Wollaston Land Company. Many new buildings are projected for 1892.

Upwards of $1,000,000 has been spent in improvements on land bought of the Wollaston Land Company. This make Wollaston Heights a safe place to invest in.

The Wollaston Land Company has now for sale 400 beautiful house lots in the heart of Wollaston Heights. These are the most desirable lots within seven miles of Boston.

The Wollaston Land Co. will sell their lots at Wollaston Heights at much lower prices

The Wollaston Land Co. will sell their lots at Wollaston Heights at much lower prices than lots in new schemes carved out of corn fields or cow pastures are now offered.

Wollaston Heights has 2500 population, five churches, well appointed schools, $20,000 depot already built, fine roads already constructed, with all the evidences of the highest civilization. You need not wait 20 years for development. years for development.

Better build your house in the centre of such progress than to be "a lone pioneer" in a potato patch.

It takes 10 to 20 years to build up a substantial village. Will you take the advantage of Wollaston Heights, already built up? Or will you join the pioneers in spending a lifetime building up a new village, and die before you achieve results?

The Wollaston Land Co. will sell beautiful sites for homes at Wollaston Heights at from 8 to 20 cents per foot or $400 and upward per lot on long credit and small cash payments.

This is cheaper than the promoters of new schemes are offering house 'ots situated miles from schools, churches, neighbors and civilization.

Rev. H. A. Philbrook Delivers an Interest ing Lecture at Universalist Church.

Howard's Ladies' Military Band. At the Universalist church last evening, Rev. Mr. Philbrook gave the last lecture in the current series, taking for his subject: "Samson's Riddle, or Good out of Evil." After relating in a graphic manner the familiar Bible story of Samson and the lion, the speaker drew many practical illustrations from the incident to show the good possible from evil. With God the conversion of evil into good is not a difficult thing; with man the work is often a hopeless task, and the opposite result takes place-good is perverted into evil. The use of the universe by infinite wisdom and finite ignorance illustrate Mt. Wollaston Lodge, No. 80, I. O. O. F., will celebrate the 73d Anniversary of Odd these opposite powers of God and man.

STRANDED IN WASHINGTON.

Indians Don't Seem to "Catch On" to the Ways of the Government.

WASHINGTON, April 25. - One of the mos vexatious questions the secretary of the interior and the commissioner of Indian affairs are frequently called upon to solve the Indian delegations which visit Washington. Within the past week five of School justment. At the conclusion of a short of conference with the Indian officials, the conference with the Ind conference with the Indian officials, the Indians find themselves no wiser respecting the laws which the Indian commisioners cannot disregard, and which the Indians apparently will never comprehend, than before they left their reservation. They find themselves stranded in Washington without money to pay their board, and having made no provision for returning to their homes, invariably call apon the Indian bureau for aid.

Consideration of this question has been ecessary so often of late that the comnissioner has referred the matter to Secretary Noble, with a view to having definitely determined what course he shall hereafter pursue. The last case of this kind was the request of the Chippewa Indians from the Leech Lake (Minn.) reser-Campello, who made an address to the their presence in Washington was unnecessary, and that if they were determined to make the trip they must arrange to pay their own expenses, including the return family was away from home.

Despite this warning, the Indians' not back to the reservation, asked for an advance of money due the Chippewa tribe in common, which the Indian commissioner did not feel warranted in granting The Indians appealed to Secretary Noble, who, unwilling that they should eventually be sent to the poorhouse, reluctantly directed that the money be advanced them

MR. SHAW WAS CHAIRMAN.

Convention of the Tenth District Re publicans-Mr. Shaw an Alternate.

The Republicans of the Tenth Congressional district held their convention in Boston, Monday evening, to elect delegates located as to be convenient of access to to the National convention at Minneapolis. The convention organized temporarily time so arranged as to prevent the noise with John Shaw of Quincy as chairman, and T. J. Sprone of Ward 22 as secretary. This organization was afterward made

The committee on credentials reported 33 of the 66 delegates present.

The Quincy delegates were: Theophilus King (at large) Ward one, Wilson Marsh; Ward two, John Shaw; Ward three, Geo. O. Shirley; Ward four, Charles L. Hammond; Ward five, Charles R. Sherman; Ward six, Roger H. Wilde.

Charles M. Bromwich proposed the name of Dr. Archibald T. Davison of Ward 14 as a candidate for delegate to the National convention; W. D. Lang of Dorchester the name of Harrison H. Atwood; and George O. Shirley of Quincy the name of John Shaw, which was seconded by Daniel McGraith, also of this city.

An informal ballot which was afterward made formal resulted as follows: Whole number of votes, Necessary for choice,

Dr. A. T. Davison had 54 H. H. Atwood, John Shaw.

The election of Dr. Davison and Mr Atwood was then made unanimous, and John Shaw of Quincy and B. F. S. Bullard of Ward 19 were elected alternates by ac-

A discussion followed on the election of new temporary district committee, to serve until the election of the new congressional committee which was finally decided by renominating the old committee, and adding the representatives from the wards of Quincy and Milton.

Resolutions were adopted indorsing the wise, conservative and patriotic policy, and The kitchen and dining room are wainthat the renomination of President Harri- scoted to the height of 3 feet, and the bath-Minneapolis, June, next.

Yesterday afternoon the joint convention between the Board of Selectmen and what remained of the School board met at the Town house agreeable to announcement. for the purpose of filling the vacancies in the School board,-four in number. The purpose was readily accomplished, there being a large amount of excellent material to draw from. The result was that Thos. A. Watson, Rev. Oliver Huckel, Dr. S. C. Bridgham and Col. A. C. Drinkwater were elected to serve in the several vacancies till the next annual town meeting, when the town will take the matter into its own hands. We believe that the action of the convention has given general satisfaction. Mrs. Hollenbeck of Union street, South Braintree, had a shock of paralysis yester day afternoon, and fear is entertained by her family that she will not come out of it. Dr. Bridgham is the attending physician. Early on Sunday morning before anybody was stirring, E. A. A COUNTRY RESIDENCE.

Its Rooms Are Well Arranged and It Has a Handsome Exterior. [Copyright, 1892, by American Press Associa-

The accompanying perspective and floor plans are of a country residence of moderate cost, built in Illinois.

It is a frame residence with all modern nprovements and is suitable for either city or country. The height of the first floor is 2½ feet above the grade line, and it is reached by broad steps leading to the front veranda, whence a pair of double storm doors open into a vestibule con-nected with the hall by a single sliding 3.00 loor. The hall is of ample size, with par-lor, sitting room and dining room con-nected with it by sliding doors.

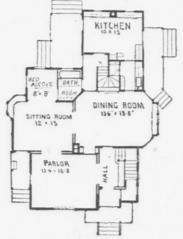

PERSPECTIVE VIEW.

By adoption of this plan these rooms car all easily be thrown together on occasion of home entertainments. Opening off the sitting room is a curtained bed alcove which is connected with the bathroom.

The sitting room and dining room ar furnished with drawers under the seats in the bay windows. The kitchen is so other parts of the house, and at the same and smells of cooking from entering other rooms, having two doors between it and any other room connected with it.

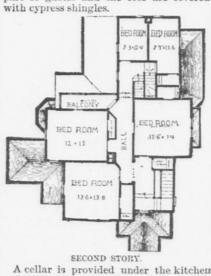

The comfort and utility of a house de pend so much upon the arrangement and relative position of the rooms that the success of a design in execution may almost be said to depend upon the manner in which the planning of the rooms is executed. Unfortunately this fact is often overlooked, and essential features of the plan are sacrified for features of the elevation. In this design is a compact and con-enient arrangement of rooms with a neat and pleasing elevation. The front window in the parlor has a polished plate glass 60x48 inches, with stained glass transon over it. The three windows on the main stairs are of stained glass. The second floor is reached by two stair ways, rising from the front and back halls. On the second floor are five chambers. Ample provision is made for closet room Red oak finish is employed in the vesti-bule and front hall, including the stair case-a material item of expense, which room 6 feet. A DOUBLE FATALITY.

Mother and Daughter Burned to Death

The Herald reports a sad fatality at South Weymouth, Monday. Mrs. Crocker, who was 75 years old and quite feeble, resided with her daughter, Mrs. Jason B. Orcutt, on Front street. Mr. Orcutt is employed in a shoe factory in the village.

As near as can be learned Mrs. Crocker was at work in the kitchen, and her daughter was hanging out clothes. Mrs. Orcutt heard her mother crying for help, and rushed into the kitchen to find her enveloped in flames. In her heroic attempt to save her mother the daughter's clothing became ignited, and in an instant she had become a victim of the flames. The screams of the imperilled women attracted the attention of William Connors, who went to their assistance, but when he reached them they were so severely burned

as to be beyond recovery. The clothing was nearly all burned from their bodies, and they were literally roasted to death. Mrs. Orcutt expired immediately after eing removed to the yard, and Mrs. Crocker lingered in great agony a few hours and died during the afternoon. Mrs. Crocker was a widow. Mr. and Mrs.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

Congressman Morse Declines to Run fo Congress This Year.

Orcutt had no children.

Congressman Morse is out with a letter eclining to be a candidate for renomination. It is dated at Washington yesterday, and he gives the reason for his action the opening paragraph, which reads. As the time is at hand when the towns and cities are choosing delegates to attend the congressional convention to nominate a candidate to represent this district in the 53d Congress, I deem it my duty to advise my constituents that I cannot be a candidate for reelection. The work of a congressman, who does his duty, is exacting and arduous. I enjoyed the service when in good health, and it has been a pleasure and delight to me to serve the people who have twice elected me as their representative; but during the present session o Congress I had a very severe attack of "La Grippe," of which several members of Congress died, and from which I have not myself recovered, and in my present state of health I cannot serve the people to my own satisfaction,-hence this letter of declination.

How Eyeglasses Are Made. The pieces of glass which are to be made into lenses for spectacles, for microscopes, small telescopes and the like are first ground into shape, roughly, by being held against a cast iron tool like a grindstone. This of course is curved to give the lens the concavity or convexity desired. From this tool the glass passes to a "fine tool," so called, of simiar construction, but made of brass and overed with a fine powder of sulphate of iron, calcined and ground. Jewelers call it rouge. Then a third tool, like and Miss Mabel Burr, affirmative; Mr. the second, but covered with cloth which | John Ramsdell and Mrs. W. F. Cummings is thoroughly powdered with rouge, is negative.

A Young Woman Shot Because She Refused to Marry.

Cambridge, Mass., April 26.—William E. Cunningham visited the house of Mrs. Solomon, 25 Portsmouth street, yesterday afternoon, and asked her if she would go to the house of Miss Maggie Williams, to urge her to come over to see him. There was nothing especially strange in the reuest, as Cunningham and Miss Williams ad often met at Mrs. Solomon's, all three having been acquainted a long time. Miss Williams entered the house soon after, and on going into the parlor with her Cunningham asked her to marry him. Promptly and emphatically she answered 1892, 7.45 P. M., in Durgin & Merrill that she would not. After pleading with her, he asked her if she would not at least show by shaking hands with him that the retained some regard for him. Miss Williams refused to do this, whereupon Cunningham drew a revolver, firing on oullet into her head and another over her neart. As she fell, he fired one shot into his own head and a second one into his

By telephoning, an ambulance and the services of some policemen were soon obtained, and Miss Williams, who was still alive, was started for the Massachusetts general hospital, but she died on the way. The murderer received medical attention as soon as possible, and was also removed to the hospital. He would say nothing about the matter, save that the woman was killed by getting in the way while be was trying to commit suicide.

The date for the wedding of Cunning. ham and Miss Williams was set for March 2, but a week before that date Cunningam broke a wooden leg which he wore, hat he had deceived her in several ways. For instance, she gave him her watch and hain, intending that he should use it for the purpose of paying his landlady, but he isposed of it in some other way. This anered the girl somewhat, and it is said

THE DAVIS MURDER TRIAL.

Seventy-five Men Were Called Before the Jury Was Selected.

Cambridge, Mass., April 26.—In interest the Davis murder case exceeds any trial of persons accused of the highest crime in he state for a number of years. For the first time in this commonwealth the superior court is to hear a murder case, with hree of its justices to determine the questions of law. The case is the first one of murder to be heard in Middlesex county since the trial of the notorious poisoner, Mrs. Sarah J. Robinson, in 1888. Beyond this, the Davis murder presents a nystery which may never be explained. The whole morning was taken up in im-paneling a jury. Seventy-five men were called before the jury was selected. Many of them were challenged by the prisoners. As completed the jury is as follows: Charles E. W. Ray of Stow, farmer; John E. Walsh, Hudson, shoemaker; Charles H. Berry, Pepperell, paper maker; Walter W. Skelton, Burlington, farmer; Edward F. Spalding, Townsend; William F. Kelly, Acton, farmer; William C. C. Colgate Woburn, fish dealer; Homer L. Littlefield, Melrose, ice dealer; Marshal Lee, Carlisle

Hot Water Lift by a Pump. In answer to the inquiry, "Will a pump draw hot water; if so, how hot and how far will it draw it?" The Stationary Engineer says: "Owing to the fact that water will boil n a vacuum at a temperature of 98 to 100 degs. it is impossible for a pump to lift what might be called hot water any distance, for as the pressure of air is removed from the surface of the water, vapor is formed and fills the space, so that no dif-ference in pressure between the inside of the pump and the air outside will be produced, consequently the water will not be forced above its level. If the supply of water is above the level of the pump, water will run in on account of its own weight, or, more properly, the force of gravity. With a good pump and moderately fast speed it might be possible to raise hot water a few inches, but the distance would be so slight that nothing practical would be gained."

THE OLEOMARGARINE LAW.

Make Monthly Returns of Sales. Washington, April 26.—The United States supreme court, in an opinion by Justice Blatchford, in the case of the United States vs. George R. Eaton, holds that there was no penalty imposed by the oleomargarine act upon dealers who refused or neglected to keep the books and make the monthly returns of receipts and sales of oleomargarine required by regulations issued under the provisions of the act by the commissioner of internal rev-

The case came here on a certificate of division of opinion between the judges of the circuit court of the United States for Massachusetts. Sections of the oleomargarine act provided that oleomargarine dealers should keep the books and make the returns required by the commissioner of internal revenue, but those sections provided no penalty for failure to comply with their requirements. Section 19, however, provided a penalty for failure to do any act in connection with oleomargarine dealings "required by law."

The question arose whether the words 'required by law" were sufficient to make it a statutory offense for a dealer to fail to do the things required by the regulations issued under the act by the commissioner of internal revenue. The court answers the question in the negative. It says that An alloy for imitation gold, resembling a matter cannot be made a legal offense by a regulation of a department. Of Inhalation has only begun to be appreciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only, illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the respiration tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is s'rictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all diseases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency of AERATED OXYCEN. It is the new medicine of nature herself.

A Councilman has estimated that the income from the works will increase $2000 a year, and the cost to operate $400 a year. The former figure is much too small for an average. It will be that at the start. In twenty-five years Quincy will have a larger population than the city of Springfield now has. An increase of $2,000 a year in income would make the income in 1918 but $82,000, whereas Springfield now has an income of $155,447 90. Think of it. gentlemen, what an income the water works will pay in a few years, and you will not vote against the purchase.

Reduction in the Price of Gas.

THE CITIZENS' GAS LIGHT COM-PANY of Quincy hereby gives notice that after May 1, 1892, discounts heretofore made to consumers of gas are abolished, and that the price for gas for dwelling houses will be reduced to the uniform net rate of

$2.50 Per Thousand Feet. The price to stores and for gas consumed by stoves remains unchanged. To enable the Company to continue to supply gas at this reduced rate it will be necessary for all takers to pay their bills

DEALERS MUST REPORT SALES. Points on the Supreme Court Decision

Regarding Oleomargarine. WASHINGTON, April 27.-Commissioner of Internal Revenue Mason says that the decision of the United States supreme court in the case of George R. Eaton is liable to be misunderstood by persons not familiar with the facts. That particular use, he explained, arose under the original oleomargarine act, which did not prescribe a penalty in the case of wholesale dealers who failed to report to the commissioner of internal revenue. The law nowever, was subsequently amended on Oct. 1, 1890, so as to cover this omission in the original act. It should be understood, therefore, that it is no longer a mere department regulation, but a provision that requires the dealer to report to the commissioner and to suffer a penalty Explorer Duveyrier Suicides. PARIS, April 27.-Henri Duveyrier, the African expiorer, committed suicide at

One of the novel little whims of dainty women is a charm of dull gold or silver, made in the shape of an acorn or flower-deuce and worn upon the bangle or chatelaine. It is filled with perfume, which is permitted to escape drop by drop and thus keep the wearer enveloped in an atmosphere of subtly fascinating odors. Women realize them having ever been able to shine on an element of charm and continually devise new and ingenious methods for surrounding themselves with its fragrance.

BARBER LEAMAN IS DEAD.

Brockton Offers a Reward for the Capture of His Assailant.

BROCKTON, April 28.-Collins A. Leanan, the barber who was waylaid and robbed Tuesday night, died yesterday af-ternoon. To the last he remained unconscious, consequently all efforts to ob tain information which would lead to his assailant's apprehension were futile.

Two or three important questions aris n connection with the case. These questions have been carefully considered by the police, and the conclusion reached that some other person was marked for at tack, and Leaman was mistaken for th person who was to have been robbed. The canvas bag in which Leaman kept his money was found within twenty-five feet from the scene of the attack, and it con tained $11.

We have received congratulations from hundreds of the best people of New England oon the committee's happy choice of the above as the name for our new suburb. "Fitting," "euphonious," "dignified," "appropriate" and "beautiful" are terms that have been applied to it by scores, but our sincerest thanks are due to the unsuccessful competitors who have so generously indorsed the selection. We realize how difficult it is for those who ent appropriate names to concede the palm to another, and we thank them again for their curtesy to us and their expressed reliance in the honesty of the method and decision. The criticisms are almost universally commendatory (with naturally a few exceptions, though small in number), and we feel that "Norfolk Downs" has received a most auspicious inauguration. There is one thing we want EVERYBODY to bear in mind, viz.: THE FLIGHT OF TIME, in connection with the in which you can participate in the distribution of the $10,000 which we are to credit on the purchase price of the first-60-day-buyers.

You understand that this proposition is ABSOLUTE, and will be carried out regardless of the amount of sales during that period.

The price of your lot will be lessened in exact proportion to its bearing toward the total amount sold by that time. If $10,000, your lot costs you nothing; if $20,000, the deed will be yours when you have paid one-half its price, and so on. The rate of your payments remain the same, but you will lessen the time and the amount of the transaction

Isn't this worth consideration and IMMEDIATE ACTION?

LONE STAR COTTON PICKER.

An Enthusiastic Meeting of Stockholders and Citizens.

Reports of President E. J. Gurley and Secretary Seth Turner - Stock Increasing in Value - Machine Perfected - Resolutions Adopted.

A number of resident stockholders of the Lone Star Cotton-Picking Machine Co. and others met last night in pursuance with the call of Col. E. J. Gurley, president, at the board of trade rooms, for the purpose of hearing the reports of the officers as to the financial condition

Col. R. B. Parrott was elected chair man, and called the meeting to order. Mr. Seth Turner was then called upon, and addressed the assemblage at some length as to the progress being made, and expressed his perfect confidence in the machine in a short time being recognized as the greatest invention of this or any other age. He compared the prog-ress of the Lone Star Cotton Picker with that of the Marsh harvester, the McCormick reaper, the Howe sewing machine, the Bell telephone, and many other of the most important inventions we now have, and showed conclusively that, in point of rapid progress, the Cotton Picker far exceeds them all. Twenty-seven years after the first reaper was made, the machine was not as near per-fect as the Lone Star Cotton Picker is today. Inventors of the most wonderful machines have been considered fools and cranks, and have persevered under the most adverse circumstances till they su ceeded. The history of Howe is worth relating. He managed to get hold of $500, with which he built a machine and gave an exhibition of its work. He suc ceeded in sewing five seams quicker and better than five ladies could by hand yet nobody would back him with money In one of his trips he had to leave his wife's clothing behind because he had n't the money to pay his wash bill. Bell walked around Boston all summer, thirteen years ago, wearing a fur-trimmed hat, because he could n't sell telephone stock enough at six cents on the dollar to buy a seasonable one. He predicted from the phenomenal success already attained in such a short time that the Cotton-Picker stock would in a short time equal that of the telephone. He said that the patents were all right, about two hun-dred claims already having been secured. Some parties had found fault with the com-pany for not building a greater number of machines last year. We should profit by the experience of others and not put too many imperfect machines upon the mar-ket. Marsh Bros. had built four hundred

Col. E. J. Gurley was next called upo and reported the financial condition of the company to be first-class, giving the total amount of capital stock, the amount of cash realized by the sale of stock in 1890, the amount subscribed in Waco and Chicago, the amount of stock still unsold, and the value of real estate, buildings, machinery, etc., in Waco. He expresses the firmest confidence in the success of the harvesters, and by hard exertion were only able to keep nine of them in operation, and after adding many improvements built only forty for the next season.

of the country that has made such rapid ciate the work that has been done.

of the work of the machine as witnessed by himself and Dr. Sears. He said that t picked the cotton cleaner and better than the negroes at work in the same field.

Mr. James B. Baker made a short speech, and was lavish in his praise of the work done by the machine. He expressed himself as perfectly satisfied with the progress already made, and was con-fident that Waco would be prouder of her Cotton Picker than any other business enterprise she has ever had. The ma-chine made a record in the field last season never equalled by any other invention, and there was no room for doubt of its perfect success.

Mr. J. D. Shaw stated that he had been approached by a certain banker in this city, who desired to purchase his stock at a small price, but that he informed hir that his stock was worth one hundred cents on the dollar. Upon motion a committee of four were appointed to draft resolutions of indorse

A recess of ten minutes was then taken, after which the following was reported To the meeting of stockholders and citizens held at the rooms of the Waco Board of Trade:

The undersigned, a committee appointed by your honorable body to express the sense of this meeting as to the character and standing of the gentlemen now in charge of the interest of the Lone Star

OR F F DAVIS Contiet Cotton Picker Co., take pleasure in stating that we have been personally acquainted with Col. E. J. Gurley, the president of said company, and Dr. J. H. Sears, one of the largest stockholders, for many years, and recommend the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, that we, the citizens of Waco, hereby cordially and cheerfully recommend and indorse Col. E. J. Gurley and Dr. J. H. Sears and the other officers of said company as gentlemen of the highest standing and integrity, and believe that they are entitled to, and should receive, the fullest confidence of all with whom they may deal in matters concerning the Lone Star Cotton Picker or any other business transactions; that they are clean-handed and upright, and will not knowing-ly deceive or be parties to any misrepresentations as to the matters and facts concerning the condition and management of the interests of said concern or of the machine itself.

We, your committee, having witnessed the operation of the Lone Star Cotton-Picking Machine in a field of cotton, where the average hands of our country were picking and had picked a number of rows of cotton, feel abundantly satisfied with the operation of the Cotton Picker as a Quincy. grand success, picking out the staple in much less time, in better condition, and securing a larger per cent of the lint.

We furthermore state that our confi dence in the ultimate and perfect success of the Lone Star Cotton Picker is an established fact, and hereby repeat the resolution of the Board of Trade passed in December, 1891.

Judge John C. West, Dr. H. W. Brown, Messrs. James B. Baker and James I. The report was unanimously adopted.

The Abuse of Hypnotism.

One of the most striking warnings on record against the use of hypnotic experinents is mentioned by Dr. C. L. Tuckey in The Contemporary Review as the story of Ilma Szandor, which Dr. von Krafft Ebing has given at length in a small volume suggestion. She fell into the hands of persons whose ill judged zeal and curiosity carried them to lengths which seem almost incredible, and her life was ruined by crue and senseless experiments. She was hypnotized several times a day for some months, apparently by any one who clo to practice upon her, and was mad the victim of very painful and distressing suggestions. preciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the respiration sified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is strictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. > WE WERE under the impression yesterlay that the Joseph Richards school was the most appropriate name that could be given to the new building in process of erection on Brooks avenue, that is, if there was an objection to calling it after the first Mayor of the city. But learning that oseph Richards was not a resident of Quincy for many years, and possibly never a voter, his friends cannot press his claim. The name suggested today, the Cranch school, seems more appropriate, particularly as it was Mr. Richard Cranch who named or suggested the name of Quincy for this nunicipality.

A picture of Mr. Cranch may be seen in the group of post masters now hung in the post office, he being the first to hold that position in Quincy, from 1795 to 1811. The office was located in the southeasterly corner of his domain, in a small building placed there for the purpose. The estate is now owned and occupied by James Edwards. In those days the postage on a letter depended on the distance, viz: 30 miles, 6 cents; 60 miles, 8 cents; 100 miles, 10 cents; more than 240 miles, 24 cents.

The LEDGER invites communications on a name, either endorsing those mentioned or suggesting new ones.

Text of the Lesson, Ps. 11, 1-13-Memory Verses, 10-13-Golden Text, Ps. 11, 10-Commentary by the Rev. D. M.

1. "Have mercy upon me, O God, achigh hills, running to a distance of cording to thy lovingkindness; according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions." This is the thaped, and for ages past a sand bar has third of the seven penitential psalms, the been washing itself up across this bay others being the vi, xxxii, cii, cxxx, cxliii, until the bar has raised up out of the xxxviii. The title gives the circumstances water some ten or twelve feet, having a which led David to write this psalm, and the whole story is found in II Sam. xi and xii. Let all consider the true significance of the seventh commandment as taught by our Lord Jesus, and let only those who are not guilty throw stones.

"Wash me thoroughly from mine in iquity, and cleanse me from my sin." Like the leper who said, "Lord, if Thou wilt Thou canst make me clean" (Math. viii, 2) he believes that the Lord can cleanse him and he wants it done thoroughly. How such a word as I John i, 9, would have comforted him, "If we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteous ness." But he had virtually the sam teaching in Lev. vi, 1-7.

3. "For I acknowledge my transgressor, and my sin is ever before me." "Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast trangressed against the Lord thy God,' was God's plea with Israel by Jeremiah (Jer. iii, 13). David does this, not making ight of it nor seeking to hide either his iniquity, the root of all the trouble, or his transgression in which he overstepped the Stationery, Confectionery line, or his sin in which he came short of the mark (Ex. xxxiv, 7).

4. "Against thee, thee only, have I sinned and done this evil in thy sight; that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest." When Nathan reproved him he said, "I have sinned against the Lord" (II Sam. xii, 13). a shot at them, will raise such a cloud When Joseph was sore tempted, instead of yielding as David did, he said, "How can all the ducks of the earth have gathered do this great wickedness and sin against fod?" (Gen. xxxix, 9.)

5. "Behold, I was shapen in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me." David recognizes sin in his nature, he did not believe that we are by nature holy, but as Paul testifies by the Spirit, "By nature F. & W. CO. children of wrath, even as others' (Eph. ii, 3). "By one man sin entered the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men." "The carnal mind is enmity against God" (Rom. v, 12; viii, 7).

6. "Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts; and in the hidden."

Ranges ridge of hills to capture a deer, which ward parts; and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom." There is a something in us known in Scripture as "The imagination of the thoughts of the heart" (I Chron. xxviii, 9; xxix, 18). And it is written, "I, the Lord, search the heart, I try the reins.'

7. "Purge me with hyssop and I shall be clean, wash me and I shall be whiter than til they have to chase the ball down into snow." God made provision for the cleansing of the people whom He redeemed from the bondage of Egypt, and to understand this verse one should be familiar with the If the question is now asked, "What is electricity?" we may reply advantastory of the leper and the two little birds geously, in the words of Jokai: A thing of of Lev. xiii and xiv, and also the red heifer story of Num. xix. In the cleansing of which we know a little more than nothing and a little less than something. A each case, the leper and the defilement con tracted by the way, the unclean one could do nothing for himself until pronounced clean by the priest. The hyssop was used to sprinkle the blood, or the ashes and water, which symbolized and typified the blood of Jesus Christ. (See Lev. xiv, 4, 7 whether static or dynamic, we are still Num. xix, 18, and compare Isa. i, 18.) 8. "Make me to hear joy and gladness that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice." One's very bones are fig no want of other theories, but the fundamental tendency of the age is to reuratively said to suffer because of sin. "My bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long." "Neither is there any xxxii, 3; xxxviii, 3). And of Christ, our substitute, bearing our sins, it is written:

"I am poured out like water and all my ies are out of joint. My heart is like vax; it is melted in the midst of my bow (Ps. xxii, 14). How fearful is sin thus fect the Holy One of God. 9. "Hide thy face from my sins and blot out ael, "Mine eyes are upon all their ways:

ey are not hid from my face, neither is eir iniquity hid from mine eyes" (Jer. 17). But Hezekiah could say after his entance, "Thou hast cast all my sins ind thy back" (Isa. xxxviii, 17), and conas the final result of the most exact investigation, it should forever be denied to him even to assert decisively, "It is t is written, "I have blotted out as a thick into the depths of the sea" (Isa xliii, 25; xliv, 22; Mic. vii, 19) 10. "Create in me a clean heart, O God, inful one, all is well, for the old cannot be orn from above (John iii, 3, margin) and receive a nature we never had before, even the divine nature (II Pet. i, 4), before we is ready to do for us, but He wants us to worth having is surely worth asking not with me carry us not up hence." And the Lord said, "My presence shall go with lowing you any further on this ground," replied the composer, blushing a little, thee, and I will give thee rest" (Ex. xxxiii, 14, 15). The strength and comfort of Moses, Joshua, Gideon, Jeremiah and all the servants of God was His presence with them (Ex. iii, 12; Josh. i, 5; Judg. vi, 16; Jer. i, 8, 19). And to us our Lord has said, The other day a woman was building with great deliberation a dialect story. 'Lo, I am with you alway" (Math xxviii, Suddenly she felt her attention called to 20). He has promised never to leave us, the corner of the room. Of Inhalation has only begun to be ap preciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN fur nishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderfu cures are being wrought. By this perfeetly natural process the respiration is reached to its last cell. Inter sified Oxygen goes straight to when the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is s rictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localties with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life, what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Ca tarrh, Consumption, Asth ma. Hay Fever, Coughs ind Colds, and, in fact, all dis es of Threat and Lungs, succurb to a marvellous natural potency ERATED OXYCEN. It as new medicine of nature herself.

for investments that are certain to pay very large dividends without danger of loss. But such opportunities occur, as in the case of The Lone Star Cotton Picking Company. Here every fact can be known—the number of bales of cotton produced, the cost of picking by hand per bale, and the total cost. These facts can be learned in an hour by any intelligent person who will take the trouble to examine the statistics, easily accessible and recognized as authority by the entire commercial world. It is just as easy to learn that the Lone Star Cotton Picker has been performing this labor for two years past at a saving of fully 80 per cent. over hand work, and that if machines enough to pick the entire crop could be furnished the saving would exceed $80,000,000 annually. To build these machines money is needed, and stock is offered for sale to raise it. After Many Years. Strawber (proudly) — That shirt was worn by my grandfather in the war of 1812. Singerly—It's strange I never saw it be-Strawber-It just came back from the laundry.-Clothier and Furnisher. A Suggestion. Old sayings are all well enough in their way; And yet there is room for improvement, I Twould be truer to say, when we quote it to-

A Big Job on Hand. Cleverton-What's your hurry, old man? Dashaway-I haven't a moment to spare. I've got to attend a reception this evening, and I'm going around to my laundryman to see if I can borrow one of my collars .-Clothier and Furnisher.

"Where there's a will there's a way to break

Skads-You don't go up on Cass avenue to see your girl any more? Skids-No, I've quit. Skads-What's that for? Skids-Aw, the old man kicked.-Detroit Free Press.

The Old Man.

He Was Accepted. With kindling eye the poet wrote To her his words of love.

The kindling's now done by his hands Each morning at the stove.

Her Motive. Cora-What got you in the notion to marry that manufacturer of porous plas Dora-I want to find one man that stick to me.-Epoch.

Marion Harland's Endorsement Royal Baking Powder.

[Extract from Marion Harland's Letter to the Royal Baking Powder Co.]

I regard the Royal Baking. Clawder as the best manufactures and in the market. It is an act of simple justice and also a pleasure to Keammend it migralifiedly to American Housewises.

Of Inhalation has only begun to be appreciated by the world, and now AERATED OXYCEN furnishes the true and only illustration of the process by which such worderful cures are being wrought. By this perfectly natural process the res tract is reached to its last cell. Intensified Oxygen goes straight to where the disease is located and roots it out. It is a cure that is s rictly logical, because natural. The healing balsam of its vapor bathes the diseased localities with its soothing and reviving influence. The living germs that create the poison are forced to wither and die. After that they are swept out of the system, and a condition of health ensues. Color comes back to the blood and vigor to the nerves. The improvement becomes a transformation. Nature now is free to put in her finest work. She invigorates with a new life what was just now a waste caused by deadly germs. La Crippe, Catarrh, Consumption, Asthma. Hay Fever, Coughs and Colds, and, in fact, all discases of Throat and Lungs, succumb to the marvellous natural potency of AERATED OXYCEN. It is

he new medicine of nature herself. FREE TRIAL And for sale at 8 Herald Building,
